

used in, or proper for the preparing, working up, or finishing of the woollen or silk manufactures, or any part of such tools, he shall, for every offence, forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his vessel, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the penalties inflicted upon persons exporting the tools; and, if the vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of any employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any entry outward, or sign any cocket or sufferance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his office, and be incapable of any office under His Majesty.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom, or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of tools and utensils used in the woollen and silk manufactures.

BANKERS' LICENCES.

Stamp-Office, London, September 14, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that all licences granted to Bankers or others, to issue promissory notes, payable to the bearer on demand, and allowed to be re-issued, will expire on the 10th of October next, and that they must be renewed within one month from that day; or penalties will be incurred.

That a separate licence must be taken out for every place where the notes shall be issued; in England, unless the persons to be licensed had issued their notes, at several places, before the 2d July 1808, and originally obtained one licence for all such places; in which case only, they will be again included in one licence. The duty on each licence is £30.

That every licence must specify the names and places of abode, of the persons to be licensed, and the name of the place or places where, and the name of the bank, as well as the partnership name, style, or firm, under which the notes are to be issued; and licences to persons in partnership must specify the names, and places of abode, of all the persons concerned in the partnership, whether all their names appear on the notes or not; and in default thereof the licences will be void. With these particulars, a specimen of the notes must also be left at this Office, by persons applying for such licences.

That a penalty of £100 for every offence, is imposed on the issuing of promissory notes, of the description aforesaid, without a licence, or at any other place, or under any other name, style, or firm, than is specified in the licence.

This notice is given that all persons concerned may conform to the law, and avoid the penalties for which they will otherwise be prosecuted; and that persons, applying for licences, may come prepared with all the requisite particulars to be inserted therein, without which the licences cannot be filled up, so as to protect the parties against penalties.

By order of the Commissioners,

Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

Admiralty-Office, September 12, 1816.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity established for the relief of poor widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 17th and 30th of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the pension list, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th November.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions, must state the rank their husbands held in the Royal Navy.

J. W. CROKER.
