

MEMORANDUM.

The appointment of Lieutenant George Hennell, from half-pay, to be Lieutenant in the 30th Regiment of Foot, vice Simpson, who exchanges; as stated in the Gazette of 28th September last, has not taken place.

Lieutenant Charles Le Courf, of the York Chasseurs, is superseded, being absent without leave. Dated October 24, 1816.

Commission in the Western Squadron of Oxfordshire Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Vice-Lieutenant of the County of Oxford.

Thomas Robinson, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated October 21, 1816.

Whitehall, November 11, 1816.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Wednesday night the 6th instant, between the hours of ten and eleven, a barn, contiguous to a farm house, in the parish of Westwood, near Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, belonging to George Hayward Tugwell, Esq. was discovered to be on fire, which soon communicating to another barn, both of them were totally consumed, together with about one hundred and fifty sacks of wheat, and a threshing machine, in one barn, and three or four loads of oats in the straw, and a small quantity of barley and peas, in the other; and whereas it hath been further represented unto His Royal Highness, that, at the same time the above-mentioned fire was raging, a barley rick on the same farm, but about a quarter of a mile distant, was likewise observed to be on fire in four places, which was also totally consumed; and that there is every reason to believe the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said barn or rick), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Tugwell, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain

"goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise under the joint locks of the Crown and the merchant, without payment, at the time of the first entry, of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto; and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to, and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such toys should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked (E); and that such toys should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such toys, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked (E), at the time of the passing the same Act.

Given under our hands, at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 4th day of November 1816.
