

“ goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares or merchandise enumerated or described in the table therunto annexed marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and be secured in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise under the joint locks of the Crown and the merchant, without payment, at the time of the first entry, of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend to such goods, wares and merchandise, in every respect, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act :

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such citrat of lime should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked E; and that such citrat of lime should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act; and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such citrat of lime in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked E. at the time of the passing the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 4th day of November 1816.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Edinburgh, October 12, 1816.

The Commissioners of the Northern Light-Houses hereby give notice, that for the improvement of the Navigation of the Irish Channel, and Frith of Clyde, a Light-house is erected upon Corsewall Point, from which a light will be exhibited on the evening of Friday the 15th of November ensuing, and will thereafter continue to be lighted every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening, till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is the Specification of the Position of the Light-house, and Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners :

Corsewall Point Light-house is situated in the county of Wigton, and district of Galloway, in north latitude 55. 1. and west longitude 5. 5. It bears by compass, from Millour, on the western side of the channel leading into Loch Ryan, W. by S. distant about two miles; from Turnberry Point S. W. 21 miles; from the Craig of Ailsa S. S. W. 15 miles; from the Mull of Kintyre S. E. by S. 31 miles; from the Hulin, or Maiden Rocks, off the coast of Antrim, in Ireland; E. by S. 20 miles; from Copeland light-house, near the entrance of Belfast Loch, N. E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. 22 miles, and from Laggan Point, in Galloway, N. E. distant 3  $\frac{1}{2}$  miles.

The light will be from oil, with a reflecting and revolving apparatus. To distinguish it from the other lights upon this coast, it will be known to Mariners as a single revolving light, with colour, and will therefore exhibit, from the same light-room, a light of the natural appearance, alternating with a light tinged with a red colour. These lights will respectively attain their greatest strength, or most luminous effect, at the end of every two minutes. But in the course of each periodic revolution of the reflector-frame, both lights will become alternately
