John Foster, Secretary.

Whereas by a notice, bearing date the 8th day of November 1816, signed by me and served on the principal occupying tenants of the town and lands of Glasshouse, Boultry, and Clonfad, containing three hundred and ninety acres and two roods, profitable land, plantation measure, situate in the barony of Clonlisk, and King's county; I have demanded from them, and each of them, all rent, and arrears of rent and renewal fines, to which I am entitled and now due me out of said lands and premises, under a lease for lives, with covenant for perpetual renewal; and whereas I have met difficulty in discovering the actual tenant bound to pay said rent, arrear of rent and renewal fines, I hereby give notice to all whom it may concern (pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided), of the aforesaid demand so made by me in manner aforesaid.—Dated this 12th day of December, in the year 1816. John Smith.

Irish Life Annuity-Office, No. 15, Bridge-Street,
Blackfriars, January 6, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that payment of the half-yearly dividends, due at Christmas 1816, together with all arrears due to that period, will commence on Thursday the 16th instant, from which day the Office will continue open for payment of the same, from the hour of ten in the forenoon to the hour of two in the afternoon, on every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday (Bank holidays excepted). The debentures are to be produced, and also certificates of the lives of the nominees, containing the names and descriptions of the nominees as in the debentures, and their present residence, otherwise a personal appearance of the nominee will be required. And it is particularly requested, that, on the demise of the nominee, the debentures may be delivered in, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the lists of deaths complete, for the future benefit and regulation of each class; and, as it is expedient that the earliest information should be obtained of the occurrences which affect a reversionary property, where so many individuals are concerned, it is further requested of all persons, who may discover any fraud or imposition on these annuities, to give notice thereof with all convenient speed.

The public are requested to take notice, that, by the Act of Parliament providing for the payment of these annuities, all persons neglecting to demand the same for the space of three years, shall forever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective nominees had been dead at the commencement of the said three years.
