THE Creditors (if any) of Peter Fraser, late Major of the 3d Battalion of His Majesty's 1st or Royal Scots Regiment of Infantry, at Saint Sebastia, Batchelor, deceased, are requested to transmit, on or before the 2d day of March next, the particulars of their demands to Messrs. Dobie and Thomas, Bouverie-Street, Fleet-Street, London, Solicitors to his Administrator, and he will immediately after that time make a division of what monies he may have received, and those Creditors not transmitting their claims by the time aforesaid, will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of such division. All persons indebted to the estate of the deceased, are required forthwith to pay their respective debts to Messrs. Dobie and Thomas, who are duly authorised to receive the same.

ELIAS LE CAPPELAIN'S BANKRUPTCY.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. James Shew, before the Commissioners at Guildhall, London, on Saturday the 18th of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely,

Two leasehold houses, situate and being No. 8 and 9, Upper Union-Place, Somers-Town, held for 74½ years from Midsummer 1810, at a ground of 6l. 13s. 4d. per annum; may be viewed till the sale.

Particulars had on the premises, of Messrs. Dax, Son, and Stephenson, Solicitors, Doughty-Street, and of the Auctioneer, No. 14, High Holborn.

TO be sold by auction, (before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued against John Aspinall and James Aspinall, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Bankers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen,) on Monday the 3d of February, 1817, at the Star and Garter Tavern, in Paradise-Street, in Liverpool, at Six o'Clock in the Evening;

All that piece of ground, with the messuage or dwelling-house thereon erected, situate on the north side of Upper Islington, in Liverpool, containing to the front thereof 21 feet, and in depth backwards 90 feet, bounded on the west by Clare-Street, on the east by a House in the possession of Mr. Casson, and on the north by a Passage of 4 feet wide.

Also, all that other piece of land on the east side of Clare-Street aforesaid, containing in front thereto 18 feet, and extending backwards 57 feet, to a back street 4 yards wide, bounded on the south by the said first-mentioned land, and on the north by a street 9 feet wide.

The above premises are freehold of inheritance, and are now in the occupation of the said James Aspinall, as tenant at will.

Also, all those two several messuages or dwelling-houses, situate and being on the east side of Castle-Street, in Liverpool, bounded on the north side by Harrington-Street, on the south by a House in the occupation of Mr. Platt; one of which said messuages is bounded at the back or east end thereof by a common passage, and the other by a House in the occupation of Mr. Docker; containing in front to Castle-

Street, 28 feet 2 inches, and in depth on the north side 40 feet, on the south 37 feet and 10 inches, and in breadth at the back, in a broken line, 24 feet 7 inches.

The last mentioned premises are leasehold, under the Corporation of Liverpool, for two lives (now in being) and 21 years, and are subject to an annuity or clear yearly sum of 204l., payable to Mr. Thomas Nuttall, of Thornton, near Sefton, in the said County of Lancaster, aged 44, or thereabouts, during his life.

Part of the above premises are now in the occupation of Statham and Hopwood, and Mr. Stokes, and the other late in the occupation of Aspinall and Son, but are now untenanted.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Young and Hughes, Solicitors, St. Mildred's-Court, Poultry, London; Messrs. Avison and Wheeler, Solicitors, Castle-Street, Holborn, London, and Hanover Street, Liverpool; or William Thompson, Solicitor, Slater's-Court, Castle-Street, Liverpool.

FREEHOLDS IN WESTMINSTER.

TO be peremptorily sold, in four lots, to the best bidders, pursuant to an Order of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, made in a matter, intitled the King against William Henry White, on a writ of immediate extent, before Abel Moysey, Esq. Deputy-Remembrancer to His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, at his Chambers, in the Exchequer-Office, in the Inner-Temple, London, on Wednesday the 22d day of January 1817, at Twelve at Noon;

The several freehold estates of the said William Henry White, situate in the City and Liberty of Westminster; comprising a spacious and convenient dwelling-house, held in fee simple, situate in Abingdon-Street, Westminster, being No. 3, now in the tenure of the Board of Ordnance, with various out-houses and appurtenances thereto belonging; a most commodious and convenient dwelling-house, situate in Parliament-Place, Westminster, late in the occupation of the said William Henry White, with various out-houses, coach-houses, and stables thereto belonging, to be held during the continuance of the joint lives of the said William Henry White and Ann his wife; a roomy and most spacious piece of ground, situate near Abingdon-Street aforesaid, having an extensive frontage to the River Thames, now used as a stone wharf, formerly in the occupation of Messrs. Deval, and now of Messrs. Stewart, together with the dwelling-house, out-houses, stables, sheds, and other buildings erected thereon, held during the continuance of the joint lives above-mentioned. The benefit of a contract entered into by the said William Henry White, for the purchase of a freehold messuage, with the yard and out-houses thereto belonging, situate on the south side of Wood-Street, Westminster, and numbered 11, being the next house but one to the corner of Tufton-Street, in the tenure of Mr. John Hardingham; and for the purchase of a dwelling-house, with the yard and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate on the east side of Tufton-Street, Westminster, numbered 1, and in the occupation of Mr. John Studdoll.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) of James Pillar, Esq. at the Office of Woods and Forests, Whitehall-Place, Whitehall; of Messrs. Jones and Green, Solicitors, Salisbury-Square, Fleet-Street, London; of William Bowyer, Esq. in the Exchequer-Office, Inner-Temple, London; and at the Chambers of the said Deputy Remembrancer.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Watson, of Abingdon-Row, Goswell-Street-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 17th day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Swain, Stevens, Maples, Pearse, and Hunt, Frederick's-Place, Old Jewry, London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, by public or private sale, all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects, at such prices and upon such terms, credit and conditions as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking any measures or proceedings for the investigation of the accounts and transactions between the said Bankrupt and any other person or persons which they may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding or making any arrangement with all or any of the debtors of the said Bankrupt's estate; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and
