If the next of kin of James Stockwell, formerly of Boston, in the United States of America, and late of Madras, in the East Indies, and an Officer in the service of Wallajah, late Nabob of Arcot, will apply at the Counting-House of Messrs. Thomas Dickason and Co. 23, Providence-Row, Finsbury-Square, London, they will hear of something to their advantage. The said James Stockwell married Jane Crossley, of Boston aforesaid, died in the East Indies, in or about the year 1790, and is supposed to have been born in Ireland.

FRANCES LAROCHE, deceased.

All persons having any claim or demand on the estate of Frances Laroche, formerly of the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, afterward residing at Egham, in Surrey, and since at Marlow, in the County of Bucks, Spinster, deceased, are requested to send an account thereof to Messrs. Pladgate and Neeld, No. 12, Essex-Street, London, the Solicitors for the Executor, on or before the 20th day of February next.

JOHN BAKER, deceased.

All persons being indebted to the estate of the deceased; late of Ludwicke Hide Farm, Bishops Hatfield, in the County of Hertford, Farmer, are requested immediately to pay the amount of their debts to Mr. N. Baker, of the same place, the Administrator. And any persons having a claim or demand upon the said estate, are also hereby requested to give immediate notice of the same to the said Administrator, who will proceed in the distribution of the said deceased's estate, on the 27th of February 1817; as all persons will be excluded the benefit of their claim after that time.—Dated the 23d of December 1816.

TIVERTON.

Tiverton, August 1, 1816.

John Harwood, Stage-Waggoner, respectfully informs his friends and the public, that for the more expeditious conveyance of goods of all descriptions, to and from Exeter, Minehead, Bampton, Dulverton, and the adjacent Towns and Parishes, his waggons sets off from Tiverton to Exeter, on every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and returns the same day; and sets off on every Wednesday morning for Minehead, through Bampton and Dulverton, and gives this public notice, that the goods delivered to him, are received and conveyed on these conditions only.

That no more than 5l. sterling for any parcel, of any kind of goods, if damaged or lost, will be paid by him, unless such goods be securely packed, and entered at the time of delivery, at their actual value; and such extra sum above the customary carriage be paid, as shall be usually charged by him.

That he will not be accountable for the breakage of any glass or furniture, nor for the loss or damage of any goods which may happen by fire, while in his custody.

That all goods delivered to him, for the purpose of being carried, are received by him as general liens, and subject as well to the general balance due to him for carriage, and money paid from the respective owners, as to the charge for the carriage of the particular goods.

And that on these conditions, the public may depend on having goods, parcels, and cash, carried with the greatest care, attention, and dispatch, by their humble servant,

JOHN HARWOOD.
