

day from and after which no tender of payment of money made in the silver coin of this realm of any sum exceeding the sum of forty shillings at any one time shall be reputed a tender in law or allowed to be a legal tender within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, either by tale or weight of such silver coin, or otherwise howsoever.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twelfth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by Our Proclamation, bearing date the eighteenth day of this instant, We thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, in pursuance of an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm," to name and appoint the third day of February now next ensuing, as the day from and after which, and from thence until the seventeenth day of February then next ensuing, as the period of time during which it should and might be lawful for any person or persons to deliver into His Majesty's Mint any old silver coin, heretofore coined and current, which should by any officer or officers of the said Mint, to be appointed for that purpose by the Master of the Mint, be judged and deemed to be such silver coin of this realm; and the said third day of February now next ensuing as the day from and after which, and from thence until the seventeenth day of February then next ensuing, as the period of time during which there should be delivered out of the said Mint, new silver coins, as in the said Act is mentioned, pursuant to the regulations and directions thereof: And whereas We have thought fit, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to postpone the commencement of the period of time during which it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons to deliver into His Majesty's said Mint any such old silver coin, and during which there shall be delivered out of the said Mint new silver coins of equal amount according to the respective denominations of the said silver: We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, revoke and discharge Our said Proclamation of the eighteenth of this instant January; and We do by this Proclamation, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, name and appoint the thirteenth day of February now next ensuing, as the day from and after which,

 Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS on the twenty-eighth day of this instant month of January divers persons, riotously assembled and stationed in different places in the City of Westminster, proceeded to commit certain daring and highly criminal outrages, in gross violation of the public peace, to the actual danger of Our Royal Person, and to the interruption of Our passage to and from the Parliament; we therefore, in the name and on the behalf
