

Whitehall, February 6, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John Warren, of Saint Minver, in the county of Cornwall, Esq. third surviving son of Samuel Warren, late of Truro, in the said county, Gent. by Blanche his wife, eldest daughter of Richard Sandys, of Helstone, in the said county of Cornwall, Esq. deceased, and sister and coheir to William Sandys, late Vicar of Saint Minver aforesaid, Clerk, also deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname, and bear the arms of Sandys only, out of grateful and affectionate respect to the memory of the said William Sandys, his maternal uncle, and in compliance with an injunction contained in his will; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, February 21, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Shuttleworth, of Market Harborough, in the county of Leicester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 22, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Thursday evening the 13th instant, the Rev. Mr. Longuet, on his return on horseback from Pangbourn, in the county of Berks, was barbarously murdered between the hours of eight and nine o'clock, on the Oxford road, about three miles from Reading; that his head was nearly severed from his body; that several dreadful gasbes were inflicted on the scull, supposed to have been done with a sword; and that five stabs, apparently made by a bayonet, had penetrated the heart;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid: such reward to be paid on application to William Andrews, jun. Esq. Clerk to the Magistrates of the Reading Division.

Whitehall, February 12, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 21st of January last, a stack of wheat, belonging to Mr. John Jarvis, of Oadby, in the county of Leicester, and also a stack of wheat, belonging to Mr. John Varnham, of the same place, were maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said wheat stacks) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Oadby Association to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said reward to be paid by John Iliffe, Treasurer of the Oadby Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Light-Houses on Fannett Point and Pier of Ardglass, North and East Coast of Ireland.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, &c. give notice, that a Light-House has lately been erected on Fannett Point, Loughswilly, from which a light will be exhibited on the evening of Monday the 17th of March next, and from thence continue lighted from sun-set to sun-rise.

Fannett Point, on which the Light-House is erected, is situate on the north coast of Ireland, and in the county of Donegal, on the west side of the entrance into Loughswilley, and bears from Malin Head, by compass, W. by S. $\frac{1}{2}$ S. eleven miles distance, and from Tory Island, E. S. E. twenty-one miles. The light is to be steady, of a deep red colour to the sea, and from the Lough a bright light.

And also on the same night will be exhibited a small harbour light from the Light-House erected on the Pier of Ardglass, on the east coast of Ireland, in the county of Down. This is also to be a steady light, and of a deep red colour.

By order,

John Cossart, Secretary.
Ballast-Office, Dublin, January 30, 1817.
