

Crown-Office, March 17, 1817.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of St. Mawes.

Joseph Phillimore, Esq. Doctor of Laws, of Whitehall, in the city of Westminster, in the room of Francis Horner, Esq. deceased.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, early in the morning of the 8th instant, a new farm-house, situate at Mickleton, in the county of Gloucester, belonging to the Rev. Mr. Graves, was maliciously and wantonly set on fire, the whole of which was consumed in the space of three hours.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Mr. Graves to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction; or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 13th instant, some person or persons, at present unknown, did fire a pistol or other fire arms, loaded with slugs, through the sitting room window of the dwelling-house of Mr. James Lees, of Odham Lane, near Oldham, and that there is every reason to suppose it was with an intent to shoot the said James Lees and his family.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired the said pistol or other fire arms), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said James Lees, and FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the Constables of Oldham, to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 28, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 16th, or in the morning of Monday the 17th instant, some evil disposed person or persons maliciously set fire to a stack of hay, the property of James and John Forster, Esqrs. standing at Murrell-Hill, near the city of Carlisle, whereby the greater part of the said stock was burned or destroyed.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said stack of hay), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 28, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about eight o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 6th instant, Mr. Pennington, of London, Wine-Merchant, was stopped in his gig between Vauxhall Gardens, in the neighbourhood of Birmingham, and the village of Saltby, near that town, by some persons, by whom he was robbed and inhumanly murdered.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the deed), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their
