

marked with the letter B, according to the directions of the said Act, and shall be mingled therewith in the said box or wheel in the usual manner :

That such of the tickets in the fifth or principal lottery, divided into shares, and deposited at the Stamp-Office, in London, or Dublin, pursuant to the aforesaid Act, as shall be drawn prizes of tickets in the supplementary lottery, shall remain in the said offices respectively until the supplementary lottery shall be drawn; and such of the tickets in the fifth or principal lottery as shall be entitled to a benefit of £50, or under, in the supplementary lottery, shall remain three clear days longer; and such as shall be entitled to a greater benefit than £50 in the supplementary lottery, shall remain fourteen clear days longer, at the expiration of which time the same shall be delivered back to the proprietor, on receiving the receipt given for the same. But every person holding a share in any such ticket may, by giving notice to the Receiver-General, or other person having the custody thereof, cause the same to be still further detained till the share shall be paid or security given, in the same manner as the aforesaid Act directs, in case the ticket had been drawn a money or stock prize in the fifth or principal lottery, and in default thereof such further measures shall be taken with respect to such ticket as if the same had been drawn a money or stock prize in the fifth or principal lottery :

That for the supplementary lottery the said managers and directors shall cause eight thousand tickets to be prepared in the usual manner, bearing the same numbers, with such of the tickets of the fifth or principal lottery as shall have been drawn prizes of tickets in the supplementary lottery, and shall cause the same to be rolled up and fastened, and to be cut off into a box marked with the letter A, in the same manner as the said Act directs, with respect to the middle columns in the books with three columns containing the adventurers tickets in the fifth or principal lottery; and that the said managers and directors shall cause eight thousand other tickets to be prepared in the usual manner, to designate the prizes and blanks in the said supplementary lottery, according to the scheme already approved of and transmitted to the said managers and directors, and shall cause the same to be rolled up and fastened, and to be cut off into a box marked with the letter B, in the same manner as the said Act directs with regard to the prize and blank tickets in the fifth or principal lottery; and that the supplementary lottery thus prepared shall be drawn in the manner prescribed by the said Act, with regard to the fifth or principal lottery; and that the drawing thereof shall take place on the 4th day of June next.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 19th day of March 1817,
N. VANSITTART.
LOWTHER.
G. W. ODELL.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the morning of the 8th instant, a new farm-house, situate at Mickleton, in the county of Gloucester, belonging to the Rev. Mr. Graves, was maliciously and wantonly set on fire, the whole of which was consumed in the space of three hours.
No. 17233. B

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Mr. Graves to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof: or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 13th instant, some person or persons, at present unknown, did fire a pistol or other fire arms, loaded with slugs, through the sitting room window of the dwelling-house of Mr. James Lees, of Odham-Lane, near Oldham, and that there is every reason to suppose it was with an intent to shoot the said James Lees and his family.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually fired the said pistol or other fire arms), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said James Lees, and FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the Constables of Oldham, to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

NOTICE.

THE Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, has, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-fifth year of the
