

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Mr. Graves to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 13th instant, some person or persons, at present unknown, did fire a pistol or other fire arms, loaded with slugs, through the sitting room window of the dwelling-house of Mr. James Lees, of Odham-Lane, near Oldham, and that there is every reason to suppose it was with an intent to shoot the said James Lees and his family.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually fired the said pistol or other fire arms), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said James Lees, and FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the Constables of Oldham, to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

NOTICE.

THE Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, has, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better examination of witnesses in the Courts of Equity in Ireland, and for empowering the Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland to grant Commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of Great Britain," appointed Thomas Eyre Lee, of Edgbaston, in the County of Warwick, Esq. a Commissioner to take affidavits within the several Counties of Hereford, Salop, Stafford, Warwick, and Worcester.

No. 17235.

TRIGONOMETRICAL SURVEY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

IT having been represented to the Master-General and Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance, that certain mapsellers and others have, through inadvertence or otherwise, copied, reduced, or incorporated into other works and published, parts of the "Trigonometrical Survey of Great Britain," a work executed under the immediate orders of the said Master-General and Board, the said Master-General and Board have thought proper to direct, that public notice be given to all mapsellers and others, cautioning them against copying, reducing, or incorporating into other works and publishing, all or any part of the said "Trigonometrical Survey," or of the Ordnance maps which have been or may be engraven therefrom. "Every offender after this notice given, will be proceeded against according to the provisions of the Act of Parliament made for the protection of property of this kind."

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, 24th February 1817.

Office of Ordnance, March 21, 1817.

THE Master-General and Board of Ordnance having granted their authority for the sale of impressions taken from the plates engraved on a scale of one inch to the mile, from the General Survey of Great Britain, performed under the superintendance of Colonel William Mudge, the public are hereby informed, that twenty-six plates are already finished, and that impressions from them are on sale at the Drawing-Room in the Tower. These plates form a complete map of the coast of Great Britain from Folkstone, in Kent, to the Land's End, in Cornwall, and thence to Wick St. Lawrence, near Bristol; and also from the Thames to Orfordness. Several other plates of this work are now in hand, and that which contains the northern part of Hampshire will shortly be ready for publication.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
