NOTICE is hereby given, that the Assignees of Joseph Wood Hussey, formerly of Bagshot, in the County of Surrey, and late of Furnival's-Inn, Holborn, in the City of London, Attorney at Law, who was discharged from the Fleet prison, on the 14th day of April 1814, under an Act of Parliament passed in the 54th year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors in England," will make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said Joseph Wood Hussey, at the Crown and

Anchor Tavern, in the Strand, on Thursday the 15th day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, amongst the Creditors of the said Joseph Wood Hussey, in proportion and in regard to each Creditor's respective debt which shall then have been proved in manner directed by the said Act.—Dated this 3d day of April 1817.

THE Creditors of Charles Joseph Zehnpfenning, late of Portsmouth, in the County of Hauts, a Lieutenant in the Menrons Regiment, who was discharged out of the custody of the keeper or gaoler of Winchester gaol, in the County of Hants, by virtue of an Order of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, made on the 22d day of January 1816, have notice hereby to make affidavits of their respective debts, in such manner as is directed by an Act of the 53d year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," and to deliver such affidavits forthwith to Mr. Richard Moseley, the Assignee appointed by the said Court to the estate and effects of the said Charles Joseph Zehnpfenning, at his House, No. 22, Piccadilly, in the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex; and the said Creditors are hereby requested to further notice that a Dividend will be made of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, on Monday the 12th day of May next, by the Assignee aforesaid, at his House, in Piccadilly aforesaid, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon.

THE Creditors of Henry Gregory, formerly of Hatton-Garden, in the County of Middlesex, and afterwards of the Inner Temple-Lane, in the City of London, Gentleman, who was discharged at the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden at the Guildhall of the City of London, on the 6th day of August in the year of our Lord 1801, from His Majesty's prison of the Fleet, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the forty-first year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors," are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Henry Gregory, on Tuesday the 27th day of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Windus and Holtaway, in Southampton-Buildings, to make a Dividend of the said estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; when and where the Creditors of the said Henry Gregory, in respect of debts due before the 1st day of March 1801, who have not already proved their said debts, are to produce to the said Assignee due proof thereof, pursuant to the before mentioned Act of Parliament, otherwise such Creditors will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then established by such due proof will be disallowed.
