

Your Royal Person and Government, and to express our utter abhorrence of that atrocious outrage lately committed against your Royal Highness, when engaged in discharging the high duties assigned to Majesty by the free Constitution of our country.

As Members of our National Church and Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, we feel ourselves called upon to express our detestation of every act that tends to produce insubordination and anarchy; and to promote, as far as in our power, respect to those laws, which equally guard the privileges of all classes in the community; and the safety of a Constitution which has stood the test of long experience, and proved the source of power, and wealth and happiness to Britons.

We feel the greatest pleasure in being able to assure your Royal Highness, that the late treasonable attack on your Royal Highness has excited a general indignation throughout the province; and that, notwithstanding of the heavy sufferings of the lower orders amongst us, they have exhibited such a degree of submission to the Divine will, and of attachment to the Constitution and Government of the country, as happily demonstrates the soundness of their religious and political principles.

Highly appreciating the inestimable blessings which we and our fathers have long enjoyed, under the mild sway of Princes of the House of Brunswick, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that we shall not cease to inculcate on the people under our care, respect for your august family, and obedience to the laws.

That your Royal Highness may be preserved from every secret, and from every open enemy; and that the people under your Royal Highness's government may be at once religious and loyal, prosperous and happy, shall ever be the prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, met at Forfar, on the 22d of April 1817 years.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, by Charles Adie, Moderator.
