

"who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 25th March 1817, will commence paying on the 12th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

M.B.M.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

Isle of Wight, to wit.

WHercas Robert Lydall, one of the collectors of the several duties payable to His Majesty on the profits on property, professions, trades, and offices, and also of the several duties of assessed taxes, hath neglected and refused to pay divers sums of money which have been by him received as such collector, and doth detain in his hands money received by him, and did not pay the same at such time as by law required, and hath wilfully refused to give an account to the Commissioners for executing the said Acts, respectively, of the sums so collected by him; and whereas Sir Leonard Thomas Worsley Holmes, Bart. and John Delgarno, Esq. two of the Commissioners for executing the said Acts, have issued warrants, under their hands and seals, to imprison the person, and seize and secure the estate, as well freehold as copyhold, and all other estate, both real and personal, of the said Robert Lydall to him belonging, or which shall descend or come into the hands or possession of his heirs, executors, or administrators, wheresoever the same can be found or discovered, and the same have been seized and secured accordingly; therefore, in pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided, the said Sir Leonard, Thomas Worsley Holmes and John Delgarno, the Commissioners who have so seized and secured the estate of the said collector, do hereby appoint a meeting of the Commissioners for executing the said Acts for the Isle of Wight, to be holden at the Guildhall, in the borough of Newport, in the said Isle of Wight, on Saturday the 17th day of May now instant, at the hour of twelve at noon, in order to proceed in the matter aforesaid, pursuant to law; and public notice is hereby given of the place where such meeting is appointed, pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided.—Dated this 2d day of May 1817.

By order of the Commissioners,

T. Sewell, Clerk.

SIRS,

I Do hereby give you, and each and every of you, notice, and require you forthwith to renew the lease made by Richard Aldworth, Esq. to William Aldworth, in the year 1724, of the lands of East Clonticmade, in the county of Cork, by naming three lives in the room and stead of Robert Stannard, Henry Sidley, and Anthony Sidley, deceased, being the three lives named in the last renewal of said lease; and to prepare and tender to me for execution such renewal or renewals as may be deemed requisite or necessary for the renewal of said recited lease; and to pay up to me such fine or fines as now is or are, or shall, or may become due and owing to me by means of your neglect in not having such renewal or renewals executed in due time; and should you neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I will take such proceedings at law or in equity for the recovery of the said lands, and for such redress as I shall be advised, for which you have this notice.

Given under my hand this 19th day of April 1817,

Richard Aldworth.

To the Representatives of William Aldworth, and all others concerned.

Notice, that Francis Leigh, of Rosegarland, in the county of Wexford, Esq. did on the 17th April instant, demand from John Farrell, principal occupier of the lands of Moodes and Graigs, situate in the county of Kildare, on the said lands of Moodes and Graigs, all renewal fines and septennial fines, due on the fall of the lives named on the last renewal of the premises, and also require him to nominate proper lives to be inserted in the place of those fallen.—Dated April 21, 1817.

Francis Leigh.
