

Majesty, to approve of M. Butet as Consul at Malta for His Most Christian Majesty.

Whitehall, May 31, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Charles Brown, of Margarett-Farm, in the county of Norfolk, Doctor in Medicine, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Prussian Order of the Red Eagle, of the third class, which His Majesty the King of Prussia has been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of His royal regard and esteem, and of the high sense that Sovereign entertains of the important services rendered by the said Doctor Charles Brown, while actually employed in the service of His Prussian Majesty, during a long series of years, as First Physician to the Prussian-Court and Army; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Commissions signed by the Vice Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan.

Sir Robert Jones Allard Kemeys, Knt. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated May 10, 1817.

Benjamin Hall, Esq. to be ditto. Dated as above.

Thomas Bates Rous, Esq. to be ditto. Dated as above.

William Nicholl, Esq. to be ditto. Dated as above.

John Wick Bennett, Esq. to be ditto. Dated as above.

Whitehall, May 19, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that several stacks of corn and hay, standing in the stack yard of Mr. Richard Milward, jun. at Hexgrave, in the parish of Southwell, in the county of Nottingham, were entirely consumed by fire, and a barn and other buildings very much burnt and injured on Tuesday the 6th day of May instant, and it is believed, that the bean stack (from which the fire communicated to the rest of the stacks) was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said bean stack), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Richard Milward, and the like reward by the Southwell Association, to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—The said rewards to be paid by Messrs. Hodgkinson and Barrow, Solicitors, Southwell.

Whitehall, May 20, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, some evil-disposed person or persons, did, some time in the night of Mondy the 12th instant, or early on Tuesday morning, remove a new thrashing machine, out of the cart lodge of Messrs. John and Henry Coe, of Pudsey Hall, in the parish of Canewdon, in the county of Essex, about the distance of eighteen feet from the said cart lodge, and did then and there wilfully and maliciously set fire to and burn the said thrashing machine;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the outrage above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said thrashing machine), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, by the said Messrs. John and Henry Coe, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Such reward to be paid on application to Messrs. Vanderzee and Comport, Solicitors, Rochford, Essex.

*Army Pay-Office, Whitehall,
May 30, 1817.*
