NOTICE, that Francis Leigh, of Resegarland, in the county of Wexford, Esq. did on the 17th April instant, demand from John Farrelly, principal occupier of the lands of Moodes and Graigs, situate in the county of Kildare, on the said lands of Moodes and Graigs, all renewal fines and septennial fines, due on the fall of the lives named on the last renewal of the premises, and also require him to nominate proper lives to be inserted in the place of those fallen.—Dated April 21, 1817.

Francis Leigh,

SIRS,

I Do hereby give you, and each and every of you, notice, and require you forthwith to renew the lease made by Richard Aldworth, Esq. to William Aldworth, in the year 1724, of the lands of East Clonticomade, in the county of Cork, by naming three lives in the room and stead of Robert Stannard, Henry Sidley, and Anthony Sidley, deceased, being the three lives named in the last renewal of said lease; and to prepare and tender to me for execution such renewal or renewals as may be deemed requisite or necessary for the renewal of said recited lease; and to pay up to me such fine or fines as now is or are, or shall or may become due and owing to me, by means of your neglect in not having such renewal or renewals executed in due time; and should you neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I will take such proceedings at law or in equity for the recovery of the said lands, and for such redress as I shall be advised, for which you have this notice.

Given under my hand this 19th day of April 1817.

Richard Aldworth.

To the Representatives of William Aldworth, and all others concerned.
