HERTS.

TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

ALL persons who have any claim or demand on the estate and effects of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Bullock, of Chesbunt, in the County of Hertford, Widow, deceased, are requested to send an account thereof to Mr. Thomas Augustus Jessopp, at Waltham-Abbey, Essex, the Solicitor for the surviving Executor, within one month from the date hereof, in order that they may be discharged, previous to a division being made of her property amongst the residuary legatees; and such persons as stand indebted to her estate are requested to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Mr. Thomas Augustus Jessopp, within fourteen days from this 2d day of June 1817.

No. 17257.

B

ALL persons having claim or demand on the estate or effects of Jonathan Gardler, late of Millford, in the County of Southampton, Gent. deceased (and not having already claimed the same), are required to send the particulars to Mr. John West, of Lymington, one of the Executors of the will of the said deceased, on or before the 10th day of July next, or they will be excluded the benefit of such claims, it being intended that a distribution of the said estate and effects shall take place in the said month of July.

CREDITORS OF JAMES AKERS.

THE Creditors of Mr. James Akers, late of the Adelphi, in the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, are particularly requested to meet the Trustees for his Creditors, at the George and Vulture Tavern, Saint Michael's-Alley, Cornhill, London, on Thursday the 12th day of June instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to assent to or dissent from the said Trustees accepting an offer for compounding a considerable debt due to the estate; also to determine on the measures to be pursued as to the liability of a certain person or persons who, it is stated, were partners with the said James Akers; and on other special affairs.

GLAMORGANSHIRE.—BRINWILLACH.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Reynolds versus Reynolds, with the approbation of Joseph Jekyll, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Thursday the 10th day of July 1817, between the hours of two and Three in the Afternoon;

A valuable and very improveable estate, comprising altogether about 1430 acres, chiefly freehold, the remainder copyhold of inheritance, called the Brinwillach Estate, situate within five miles of the seaport Town of Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan.

The copyhold part, Brinwillach-House and demesne, consists of about 316 acres, and forms a desirable residence.

The freehold part consists of above 1100 acres, forming several compact and well proportioned farms.

The whole at present is let at rents, some of which are low, the rest moderate, amounting to about 700l. per ann.

There is considerable timber on the estate, which is well supplied with game, grouse shooting in its vicinity, and has also the advantage of a very good trout stream, which turns a corn-mill (part of the property), and may be made serviceable in a manufacturing establishment.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Frederick Reynolds, Esq. Warren-Street, Fitzroy-Square; of William Vaughan, Esq. Lanelay, near Lantissent; of Mr. Richard Howell, New-Mill, near Cardiff; and of Mr. Lyon, No. 72, Great Russell-Street, Bloomsbury-Square. Mr. David Thomas, at the Bush Inn, Swansea, will shew the estate.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 10th day of May 1815, made in a Cause wherein Pierre Martin and others are Plaintiffs, and William Knight is Defendant, it was (amongst other things) referred to Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who were the next of kin of Matthew Martin, late House Steward to Lord Viscount Morpeth, of Grosvenor-Place, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, and of Castle Howard, in the County of Somerset, deceased (who died some time in the month of September 1807), living at the time of his death, and whether any of them were since dead, and if dead, who was or were their personal representative or representatives.—Any person or persons claiming to be such next of kin of the said Matthew Martin, living at the time of his death, or to be the personal representative, or representatives of such of them as are since dead, are, on or before the 12th day of July 1817, to come in and make out his, her, or their claim or claims, and prove such kindred, before the said Sir John Simeon, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Minet against Vulliamy, the Creditors, Legatees, and Annuitants of Joshua Am Droz, formerly of Meard-Street, Dean-Street, in the Parish of Saint Ann, Soho,
