

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the offence above mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. Timbrell, Solicitor, Trowbridge.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares or merchandise enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the Crown and the merchant, without payment, at the time of the first entry, of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend to such goods, wares and merchandise, in every respect, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of the passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such amber beads should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked E; and that such amber beads should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act; and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such amber beads in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked E. at the time of the passing the same Act.

Amber Beads,

Army Pay Office, London,
June 24, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, by direction of the Paymasters-General of the Forces, that the payment of three months half-pay to reduced Officers of His Majesty's Forces, to the 24th June 1817, will commence on Monday the 30th instant; and that attendance will be given at this Office accordingly, every day except Saturday and Sunday, between the hours of eleven and two, for four weeks, terminating on Friday the 25th of July next, after which time the days of payment will be Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, only, in each week.

George Gillam Mills, Cashier of Half-Pay.

SIRS,

I Do hereby give you, and each and every of you, notice, and require you forthwith to renew the lease made by Richard Aldworth, Esq. to William Aldworth, in the year 1724, of the lands of East Clonticomade, in the county of Cork, by naming three lives in the room and stead of Robert Stannard, Henry Sidley, and Anthony Sidley, deceased, being the three lives named in the last renewal of said lease; and to prepare and tender to me for execution such renewal or renewals as may be deemed requisite or necessary for the renewal of said recited lease; and to pay up to me such fine or fines as now is or are, or shall or may become due and owing to me by means of your neglect in not having such renewal or renewals executed in due time; and should you neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I will take such proceedings at law or in equity for the recovery of the said lands, and for such redress as I shall be advised, for which you have this notice.

Given under my hand this 19th day of April 1817,

Richard Aldworth.

To the Representatives of William Aldworth, and all others concerned.
