The Right Honourable the Lords of the Treasury.

After our hearty commendations, having considered the annexed scheme of the first lottery to be drawn pursuant to the provisions of an Act, 57th Geo. 3, we do hereby signify to you our consent and approbation of the said scheme.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 1st day of August 1817,

LIVERPOOL.
C. GRANT, jun.
JOHN BARRY.

To the Managers and Directors of the Lotteries.

Whitehall, August 4, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased to appoint Hugh Lewis, Esq. Coroner of and within the fees, liberties, and franchises of the Duchy of Lancaster situated within the counties of Essex, Hertford, Middlesex, and Surrey.

Navy-Office, August 1, 1817.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of April to the 30th of June 1817, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On Monday the 11th instant, and two following days, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 14th, 15th, 17th, and 18th instant, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 19th and 20th instant, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer
