

FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Arnott, Esq. to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, August 8, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night or Sunday last, the 3d instant, three horses were stabbed, in a field in the occupation of Mr. Lawrence Wilmore, in the parish of Enderby, near Leicester;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said horses), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the said Mr. Lawrence Wilmore, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Army Pay-Office, August 30, 1817.

Notice is hereby given to all Officers on half-pay of the Army, who may wish to receive their respective allowances of half-pay by a remittance from this Office, that they are required, at the same time that they forward their several affidavits necessary for that purpose, to transmit separate papers, shewing the manner in which they respectively sign their names, in order that such separate papers containing their signatures may be forwarded with the duplicate remittance bill to the Revenue Officer from whom they are desirous of receiving their allowances.

By order of the Paymaster-General,
Wm. Wood, Cashier of Half-Pay.

Army Pay-Office, August 30, 1817.

Notice is hereby given to all General Officers, wounded and retired Officers, to Adjutants of Local Militia, to widows of Officers of the Land Forces, and to all persons entitled to pensions, as of Royal Bounty or who are on the Compassionate List, who may wish to receive their respective allowances by a remittance from this Office, that they are required, at the same time that they forward their several affidavits or other documents necessary for that purpose, to transmit separate papers, shewing the manner in which they respectively sign their names, in order that such separate papers containing their signatures may be forwarded with the duplicate remittance bill to the Revenue Officer from whom they are desirous of receiving their allowances.

Provident Institution for Savings, established in the Western Part of the Metropolis and its Vicinity, No. 13, Panton-Street, Haymarket, late of No. 28, Leicester-Square.

His Grace the Duke of Somerset, President.

Notice is hereby given to the depositors, and to the public in general, that it is the opinion of the Managers of this Institution, that it will be for the advantage and benefit of the depositors to have their deposits invested in the Government Debentures created, under the Act recently passed for the protection and encouragement of Provident Institutions or Banks for Savings, by which they will both save their deposits from any future fluctuation of the funds, and receive a higher rate of interest than the funds pay at their present price;

That the present deposits will be transferred into the said Government Debentures on or previous to the 16th instant, and that all future deposits, not exceeding £100 for the first year, or £50 in any subsequent year, deposited by any individual (being the limits prescribed by the said Act), will be invested in such Debentures.

Any depositor not approving of this alteration can, upon application at the Office within a fortnight from the date hereof, receive back the balance due to him.—2d September 1817.

John Julius Angerstein, Chairman.
Robert Parrott, Actuary.
