Worcester, September 27, 1817.

Relations of ROBERT VELLERS, late of the Parish of Saint Swithin, in the City of Worcester, Gentleman (who died on the 19th of April 1815), and had just retired from the Business of a Silk-Mercer, which he had followed for above 30 Years in Worcester, and was a Native of Burnham-Deepdale, in Norfolk.

Whereas the said Robert Vellers, by his last will and testament, bearing date 31st day of March 1815, after giving several pecuniary legacies, gave and bequeathed the residue of his estate and effects in the words following, viz. "Unto my said cousin — Gardner, and all other my relations, not being further removed than the degree of second cousins, equally, share and share alike, so that they make their claim to my Executors within two years from the proving of my will by them, otherwise equally between such only who shall make their claim within that time;" and the said Testator appointed Mr. William Walker, now residing at Saint John's, near Worcester, and William Welles, of the City of Worcester, Attorney at Law; Executors of his said will, and which was proved by the said Executors, in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, on the 5th day of August 1815.

And whereas soon after the Testator's decease many persons delivered in their claims to the said Executors, as being the only relations of the said Testator entitled to the said bequest, but so late as the 23d of June last the claims of two other persons have been made, as coming within the degree of second cousins; therefore, before making distribution among the present claimants, the Executors acting under the said will do hereby give this notice, that all other persons considering themselves entitled to share in the said residue may do so on or before the 27th day of November 1817, transmit the necessary proofs, by certificates or otherwise, of their being relations not further removed than the degree of second cousins of the said Robert Vellers, the Testator.

Such claims, and all applications in pursuance thereof, being made (if by letter free of postage), to the said William Walker and William Welles; at the Office of Messrs. Welles and Dickens; Solicitors, Worcester, or their Agent, Mr. James Platt, Solicitor, New Boswell-Court, Carey-Street, Lincoln's-Inn, London; Mr. Watson, Solicitor, Fakenham; or to Richard Elliott, Esq. Devizes, Wilts.

LEGACIES TO RECEIVE.

Notice to the following Relatives of the late Mr. JAMES COOPE, of Northen, in Cheshire, viz.

THE children of Edmund Fitton, by Martha his wife, late of Snapleach, in the Parish of Middleton, in the County of Lancaster; the children of John Coope, of Mansfield Woodhouse, in the County of Nottingham; the widow of William Coope, late of Workop, in the County of Nottingham, and her children by William Coope; Thomas Coope, of Thurbly, in the County of Lincoln, or his children; James Coope, of Neitherlangwich, in the County of Nottingham, and his children; the children of Joseph Wolstonholme, late of the Crescent, in Salford; the children of Samuel Wolstonholme, late of Fallswoth, near Manchester; the children of Edward Wolstonholme, late of Newton; Humphrey Hopkin, of Dolsover, in the County of Derby, and his widow and children; Simon Andrew Young, of Sheffield, in Yorkshire, and his widow and children; James Crawshaw, of Rotherham, in Yorkshire, or his children; the children of Richard Downs, of Whitechurch, in the County of Salop, by Mary the daughter of Andrew and Sarah Wanningham, late of Manchester, who are become entitled to certain legacies under the will of the said Mr. Coope on the death of his widow, which happened on the 26th of January last. Now all the above persons are hereby again required to lodge and substantiate their respective claims to the said respective legacies, with proper certificates, registers, and other documents, on or before the 8th day of March next, otherwise their claims will be forfeited and lost, and the money divided according to the directions of the said will. For further information and particulars apply to Mr. Adam Faulkner, Barton-upon-Irwell, near Eccles, in Lancashire, or Mr. Samuel Jackson, Houghshead, Withington, near Manchester, surviving Trustees and Executors under the said will, or at Mr. Foulke's, of Manchester.

From the Marshall's-Office.
Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority received from His Honour E. Samuel, President of the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, dated 24th 1817;

I, the undersigned, at the request of Wm. Reynolds; who, together with Peter Grant (now absent from this Colony), appointed Curators to the insolvent estate of Kenneth McKenzie, deceased, do hereby summon, by edict, all known and unknown Creditors of the insolvent estate of K. McKenzie deceased, to appear at the bar of the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their session, which will be held in the month of January 1818, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly attested, against the aforesaid estate, to verify the same, and hear the objections made thereunto, if need, and further to proceed according to law.

This first summons by edict published as customary.—
Berbice, 24th June 1817.

K. FRANKEN, First Marshal.
