

rupts, and out of which money so received a considerable sum was paid to the Crown for arrears of taxes received by James Booth, one of the said Bankrupts, and by him never paid over nor accounted for to the Crown, and which monies were so paid over, as is alleged, upon representation by the collector and other official parties, that an extent was issued and would instantly be acted upon, unless such monies were so paid over as aforesaid; and also at the same time and place aforesaid, to indemnify and save harmless the said Assignee (in case the said Bankrupts estate should be insufficient for that purpose), from all costs, charges, damages, and expences which he may pay, bear, sustain, or be put unto in consequence of such action or other proceedings as may be advisable or agreed upon at such meeting, for the recovery of all or any part of such monies so collected and received as aforesaid; and also at the same time and place to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, by private contract, at an appraised valuation, to any person or persons, and to take such security, and payable at such time as to the said Assignee shall seem reasonable and fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Johnson the elder and Thomas Johnson, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Coach-Makers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Tuesday the 7th day of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the George Inn, in Dale-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the residue of the stock in trade or goods of the said Bankrupts, or any part thereof, to the said Bankrupts or to any other person or persons, and to confirm any bargains or sales already made of the same by private contract, upon such terms, at such prices, and in such manner, and upon such credit and security as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees permitting the said William Johnson the elder and Thomas Johnson, the Bankrupts, to retain and keep, for their own use and benefit, the whole or any part of the household furniture, linen, and other household effects, the same being taken at a valuation to be made by a Sworn Appraiser; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees leaving any dispute relating to the said Bankrupts' estate and effects to reference, and for that purpose to appoint any Arbitrator or Arbitrators, and to execute any bond or bonds or agreement of reference, and to authorize such Assignees and Assignee to obey any award to be made in pursuance of any such bonds or agreements; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees indemnifying themselves and himself and their and his heirs, executors, and administrators, estate and effects, of and from the consequence of such award, and all expences attending such bonds or agreement of reference, arbitrations and awards, in any way from and out of the Bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees completing all or any part of the work of, and belonging to the said Bankrupts' estate, which may already be on hand in an unfinished state, and paying the expences attendant on the completion of all or any part of such work; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full the wages due to the clerks, servants, or workmen of the said Bankrupts at the date of the said Commission, and of paying and discharging, out of the Bankrupts' estate, the expences incurred by the petitioning Creditors in issuing a former Commission against the said Bankrupts, which was not proceeded in, in consequence of a trust deed or assignment being agreed to by several of the Creditors of the said Bankrupts, but which was not fully carried into effect; and to assent to or dissent from the Trustees or Trustee, named in the said deed, and all others concerned therein being paid and allowed by the said Assignees, out of the funds of the said Bankrupts' estate, the expences attendant upon such trust deed; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, releasing, and discharging any debt or demand due, owing, or claimed by the said Assignees of and belonging to the said Bankrupts' estate, or making such arrangement with any Debtors or Debtor of the said Bankrupts, respecting the payment of their several demands, taking security for the payment of the same or otherwise, as the said Assignees or Assignee shall think fit; and also to authorize and empower the said Assignees or Assignee to sell and dispose of all or any part of the debts due and owing to the said Bankrupts, and take security for the payment of the same, and do such acts relating thereto, as they shall deem prudent; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees examining, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Morgan the younger, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Timber Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, at the Office of Mr. Charles Bird, in Castle Ditch, in Liverpool aforesaid, on Tuesday the 7th day of October next, at Twelve at Noon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the residue of the stock in trade, or goods of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof, to the said Bankrupt or to any other person or persons, and to confirm any bargains and sales already made of the same by private contract, upon such terms, at such prices, and in such manner, and upon such credit and security as said Assignee shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee permitting the said Bankrupt to retain and keep, for his own use and benefit, the whole or any part of his household furniture, linen, and other household effects, the same being taken at a valuation made or to be made by a Sworn Appraiser; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee leaving any dispute, relating to the said Bankrupt's estate, to reference, and for that purpose to appoint any Arbitrator or Arbitrators, and to enter into any bond or bonds or agreement of reference, and to authorize such Assignee to obey any award to be made in pursuance of any such bonds or agreements; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee indemnifying himself, and his heirs, executors, and administrators, estate and effects of and from the consequence of such award, and all expences attending such bonds or agreements of reference, arbitrations, and awards in any way from and out of the Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying in full the wages due to the clerks, servants, or workmen of the said Bankrupt, and of paying and discharging, out of the Bankrupt's estate, the expences incurred by the petitioning Creditor in issuing a former Commission against the said Bankrupt, which was not proceeded in, and also of preparing certain deeds or instruments, and of keeping possession thereunder, being assignments of the Bankrupt's estate and effects, in order to prevent the effect of a supposed extent, previous to possession, being taken of the Bankrupt's estate and effects under the said Commission; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding, releasing, and discharging any debt or demand due, owing, or claimed by the said Assignee of and belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, or making such arrangement, with any Debtor or Debtors of the said Bankrupt's estate, respecting the payment of their several demands, taking security for the payment of the same, or otherwise, as the said Assignee shall think fit; and also to authorize and empower the said Assignee to sell and dispose of all or any part of the debts due and owing to said Bankrupt, and take such security for the payment of the same, and do such acts relating thereto as they shall deem prudent; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Syers, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Commission Agent, Broker and Chapman, a Bankrupt, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 7th day of October next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Charles Bird, in Castle Ditch, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or