

“ stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arsus, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:”

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Bristol has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Bristol is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Chetwynd.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

A 2

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Burgh and Parochial Schoolmasters of the Presbytery of Dunfermline, Scotland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, your Royal Highness's most obedient and most devoted servants, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness's presence, to express our heartfelt sorrow at the late afflicting dispensation with which Providence has seen meet to visit your Royal Highness.

We are far from imagining that any sympathy of ours can mitigate your Royal Highness's sufferings at the loss of a daughter, every way so deservedly worthy of the warmest affection; yet we hope, that when time shall have soothed the grief which her most lamented death has occasioned, it may afford a melancholy pleasure to your Royal Highness to reflect, that the whole of the mighty nation under your Royal Highness's government, whether high or low, or rich or poor, have participated in it.

That the Great Being, who in His wisdom hath so severely tried your Royal Highness, may grant that these light afflictions, which are but for a moment, may work out for your Royal Highness a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, is the sincere prayer of your Royal Highness's most obedient and most devoted servants, the Burgh and Parochial Schoolmasters of Dunfermline, Scotland.

Dunfermline, November 24, 1817.

[Transmitted by R. J. Douglas, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Township of Stourbridge, the Parish of Oldswinford and its Vicinity, deeply impressed with feelings of sorrow and disappointment at the sudden, momentous and irreparable loss which the Royal House of Brunswick has sustained, by the much lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, the fairest blossom of a nation's hope, do most humbly approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt expressions of condolence on this most painful and trying occasion.

With the most profound submission we bow to the dispensations of Unerring Wisdom, at whose mysterious and alarming visitations fortitude and imbecility sink together, and the sage and the virgin alike mingle their lamentations. Fervently trusting that the unalterable attachment of a loyal people may sooth the pangs of affliction, or at least alleviate their pressure; we desire to express our cordial sympathy in your parental sufferings, and to unite our ardent hopes, that your Royal Highness may be enabled to support with firmness and resignation this unexpected and tremendous calamity.

That the Almighty may be pleased to give to