THE Next of Kin (if any) of William Case, who was a native of Willoughby, in the County of Warwick, and who died on the 21st day of July last, at Fordingbridge, in the County of Southampton, where he had resided for twenty-five years and upwards preceding his death, are desired to apply to Messrs. Adderley and Box, Proctors, in Doctor's-Commons, and they will hear of something to their advantage.

JOHN MATTHIAS SCHROEDER, deceased,

THE Creditors of the Separate estate of the late J. M. Schroeder may receive a dividend out of the effects now realized by his Administrators, by applying at the Counting-House of Mr. James Frederick Perrin, No. 50, Threadneedle-Street, on Thursday the 12th and Saturday the 14th instant, between the hours of Eleven and One; and they are requested to bring their accounts with them.

WILLIAM WALTER VINEY'S ESTATE.

ALL persons having any claims or demands against William Walter Viney, formerly of Crutched-Friars, in the City of London, afterwards of Missendon, in the County of Bucks, and late of Gerrard's-Cross, in the same County, deceased, are requested to send an account of such claims to Mr. David Beatson, Rotherhithe, Timber-Merchant (Executor of the last will and testament of the said William Walter Viney), or to Messrs. Druce and Son, Solicitors, No. 10, Billiter-Square, within one month from the date hereof, in order that the same may be paid and discharged, or such claims will be excluded on the division of the said estate, and the balance paid over to the parties entitled under the said will.—Dated this 31st day of January 1818.

TO be sold, in or about the month of March 1818, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Jervoise against Clarke, with the approbation of William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in sundry lots;

A considerable quantity of oak and ash timber and trees, and six acres of underwood, growing on certain farms, at Northfield, in the County of Worcester, and Westbromwich, in the County of Stafford, late the estate of Thomas Clarke Jervoise, Esq. deceased.

The timber will be sold at Birmingham, and the day and place of sale, together with the times when, and the places where printed particulars may be had, will be duly advertised.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Benjamin Young, and others, are plaintiffs, and William Darman is defendant, before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the public sale room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Tuesday the 10th day of February 1818, between the hours of One and Two of the Clock in the Afternoon;

A leasehold public house called the Angel and Crown, situate and being near Saint Agnes-le-Clair, Old-Street, and held for an unexpired term of 79 years, or thereabouts, if two persons therein named or either of them shall so long live, at the yearly rent of 24l.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had at the said Master's Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Vandercom and Comyn, Solicitors, Bush-Lane, Cannon-Street, London; and of Messrs. Collett, Wimburn, and Collett, Solicitors, Chancery-Lane, London; and on the premises, which may be viewed on application to the Tenant.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 27th day of June 1817, made in a Cause wherein Alexander West Hamilton and others are plaintiffs, and Thomas Bell Villers Symes and Joseph Baron Symes are defendants, the Creditors of John Symes, late of the Island of Jamaica, Esq. (who died in the month of December 1808), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Separate Creditors of Thomas Dowley, and the Joint Creditors of Thomas and James Dowley, who have proved as also those who have not proved their Debts under a Joint
