Licence to import bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Francis Waskett, of Charlotte Street, Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, and unto Jane, his wife, eldest daughter and coheir of Graham Myers, late of Monkstown and Marlefield, in the county of Dublin, Esq. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that they may take and use the surname of Myers, in addition to and after that of Waskett; that the said Francis Waskett may bear the arms of Myers quarterly with those of his own family; and that the said surname and arms of Myers may be in like manner taken, used, and borne by the issue of their marriage, out of affectionate respect towards the family of the said Jane Waskett, the male line of which is become extinct, and in particular to the memory of the several individuals of that family who have honourably distinguished themselves and died in His Majesty's military service; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Commission in the Cuningham and Cunnock Corps of Ayrshire Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Ayr.

John Hamilton, Esq. to be Captain of a Troop.

Dated January 30, 1818.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the dwelling-house of Mr. George Bird, in the parish of Greenwich, in the county of Kent, was entered in the night of Saturday last the 7th instant, by some person or persons unknown, who most inhumanly and barbarously murdered the said Mr. George Bird, and his servant, Mary Simmons, and afterwards rifled the house;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murders, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the said murders), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
