Whitehall, March 7, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Thomas Baker, Esq. Post Captain in the Royal Navy, and Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Military Order of Wilhelm, of the third class, with which His Majesty the King of the Netherlands has been pleased to honour that Officer, in consideration of the signal services rendered by him, in the month of November 1813, to His said Majesty, then Prince of Orange, by effecting, with great promptitude and ability, at that critical period, the disembarkation of a body of seamen on the Coast of Holland, thereby eminently contributing to the success of the efforts then making by the Dutch Nation to recover their independence; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Foreign-Office, March 7, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to approve of Mr. ——— Harington, as Consul at the Cape of Good Hope for His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias.

Whitehall, February 13, 1818.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Matthew Pearson, of Pontefract, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, March 6, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between the hours of two and three o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 18th ultimo, the house of Mrs. Harpur, of Falkenham, in the county of Suffolk, was burglariously entered by three persons disguised in masks, who went up stairs to the chamber of Mrs. Harpur, and after demanding her money by threats (they standing on each side of her bed, armed), proceeded to rife the house, and took away 55l. in Bank of England notes, and other property.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward of one hundred pounds to be paid by Mr. William Harpur, of Stratton Hall, near Ipswich.

Whitehall, February 28, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Saturday the 14th instant, a barn and stack of oats, belonging to Mrs. Dehany, at Pickhurst Farm, in the parish of Hayes, near Bromley, in the county of Kent, were feloniously set on fire, whereby a large barn, with some implements of husbandry and a large quantity of oats, were totally consumed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and stack of oats), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—One half of the reward above-mentioned to be paid by the said Mrs. Dehany, and the other half thereof to be paid by the Phoenix Fire Office, in London.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the dwelling-house of Mr. George Bird, in the parish of Greenwich, in the county of Kent, was entered in the night of Saturday last the 7th instant, by some person or persons unknown, who most inhumanly and barbarously murdered the said Mr. George Bird, and his servant, Mary Simmons, and afterwards rifled the house;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murders, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the said murders), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Greenwich, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted); to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by John Bicknell, Esq. Vestry Clerk of the said parish.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock on the evening of Monday the 20th of January last, some evil-disposed person maliciously fired a gun, loaded with a leaden bullet, at Mr. William George, foreman to the journeymen Fullers, employed at Crawley-Mill, in the county of Oxford, the property of Mr. Robert Collier, jun. whereby the life of the said William George was in imminent danger;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH;

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Master and Corporation of Blanket Weavers, at Witney, in the said county, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Revocation of a Licence.

*Navy Pay-Office, London,
February 27, 1818.*

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His present Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

Mr. John Gage, of No. 6, Temple-Chambers, Fleet-Street, London, on the 20th July 1816, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money; for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of his having removed from his abode without giving me notice.

Frederick John Robinson.

Restoration of a Licence.

Navy Pay-Office, March 5, 1818.

THE licence of Mr. Isaac Myers, of No. 57, Broad-Quay, Bristol, which was revoked on the 24th of November last, for withholding prize-money that was due to Mr. John Readin, late boatswain of His Majesty's ship Curaçoa, was restored to him the 2d instant, he having since acknowledged his error, and satisfactorily accounted to the said officer for what was due to him.

Frederick John Robinson.
