

Whitehall, March 12, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Sarah Otway, of Stanford-Hall, in the county of Leicester, widow, relict of Henry Otway, of Stanford-Hall aforesaid, and of Castle Otway, in the kingdom of Ireland, Esq. deceased, and only daughter of Sir Thomas Cave, and sole heir to her brother Sir Thomas Cave, both of Stanford-Hall aforesaid, Baronets, also deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that she and her issue by her said late husband may, out of respect to her paternal ancestors, henceforth assume and use the surname of Cave, that from the very high regard and esteem which she entertains for the family of Otway, the said surname of Cave may be borne in addition to and after that of Otway; and that the arms of Cave may be borne by her said issue, quarterly, in the first quarter, with those of Otway; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's College, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about five o'clock on the morning of Monday the 27th January last, the corn stacks, barn, stables, and other buildings belonging to Mr. John Barns, of Lessingham, in the county of Norfolk, were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness, that between seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Wednesday the 28th January last, the straw stack belonging to Mr. Philip Betts, of Happisborough, in the said county, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set the said corn and straw stacks, &c. on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Gentlemen, owners and occupiers of land in the neighbourhood where the offences were committed, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, March 6, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between the hours of two and three o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 18th ultimo, the house of Mrs. Harpur, of Falkenham, in the county of Suffolk, was burglariously entered by three persons disguised in masks, who went up stairs to the chamber of Mrs. Harpur, and after demanding her money by threats (they standing on each side of her bed, armed), proceeded to rife the house, and took away 55l. in Bank of England notes, and other property;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward of one hundred pounds to be paid by Mr. William Harpur, of Stratton Hall, near Ipswich.

Whitehall, February 28, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Saturday the 14th instant, a barn and stack of oats, belonging to Mrs. Dehany, at Pickburst Farm, in the parish of Hayes, near Bromley, in the county of Kent, were feloniously set on fire, whereby a large barn, with some implements of husbandry and a large quantity of oats, were totally consumed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and stack of oats), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—One half of the reward above-mentioned to be paid by the said Mrs. Dehany, and the other half thereof to be paid by the Phoenix Fire Office, in London.
