

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the dwelling-house of Mr. George Bird, in the parish of Greenwich, in the county of Kent, was entered in the night of Saturday last the 7th instant, by some person or persons unknown, who most inhumanly and barbarously murdered the said Mr. George Bird, and his servant, Mary Simmons, and afterwards rifled the house;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murders, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the said murders), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Greenwich, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted); to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by John Bicknell, Esq. Vestry Clerk of the said parish.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock on the evening of Monday the 20th of January last, some evil-disposed person maliciously fired a gun, loaded with a leaden bullet, at Mr. William George, foreman to the journeymen Fullers, employed at Crawley-Mill, in the county of Oxford, the property of Mr. Robert Collier, jun. whereby the life of the said William George was in imminent danger;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Master and Corporation of Blanket Weavers, at Witney, in the said county, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, and in the names of the Company of Proprietors of the Waterloo-

Bridge, and of the Trustees of the Surrey New Roads, acting under the several Acts hereinafter referred to, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament, for powers to authorise the Company of Proprietors of the Waterloo-Bridge to relinquish the controul, superintendance, and management, and the repairing, lighting, and watching of the roads made, or to be made, on the south side of the said bridge, under or by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament authorising the building of the said bridge, and the making of roads and avenues to communicate therewith, to the Trustees appointed under and by virtue of the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making, widening, and keeping in repair certain roads in the several parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and of another Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His said present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of the twenty-sixth year of His present Majesty, for making and keeping in repair certain roads in the parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and to authorise the said Trustees to accept such relinquishment as aforesaid; and for varying, altering, and regulating the tolls to be taken on the said roads so to be relinquished as aforesaid.
