TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1818.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of April 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place; for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where].

WHEREAS [the name of the person], one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland], that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name], being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name], residing at [place where], all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now he it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the _____ at the _____ this day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and _____ Licence to import bread, flour, Indian corn, and

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that several hovels, ricks, &c. hereafter particularized, have been, within the last five months, destroyed by fire, in the parish of Wellinborough, in the county of Northampton, and that there is every reason to suppose that the same have been occasioned by the acts of some evil disposed persons unknown, viz.

A cattle hovel, the property of Charles Hill, Esq. on the 6th of November last;

- A cattle hovel, the property of S. Sharman, Esq. on the 19th of November last ;
- A cattle hovel, the property of Mr. John Hardwick, on the 22d of December last ;
- Two hay ricks, the property of Mr. Benjamin Gosley, on the 14th of January last ;
- A clover rick, the property of G. Margetts, Esq. on the 17th of January last ;
- A cattle hovel, the property of the Rev. J. Bodien, on the 9th of February last ;
- A cattle hovel, the property of C. G. Thornton, Esq. and in the tenure of Mrs. Battams, on the 20th of February last ;
- A hay rick, the property of Mrs. Battams, on the 13th of March last ;
- A wheat hovel, the property of Mrs. Battams, on the 3d of April last, which from its contiguity to the town, endangered the lives and property of a great number of the inhabitants ;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to any of the property above mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement the rewards hereafter specified, viz.

For the discovery of the person or persons who set fire to,

are hereby offered and guaranteed by the parish of Wellingborough aforesaid, to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of any of the said offences.

Whitehall, April 14, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince-Regent, that, about one o'clock in the morning of Thursday the 2d instant, a stable, three lodges, and part of the dwelling-house belonging to Mr. Thomas Morgan, of the parish of Ightham, in the county of Kent, were feloniously set on fire, whereby the stable, with a horse in it, and the lodges were consumed, and the dwelling-house considerably damaged ;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Messrs. Reardon and Davis, Corbet-Court, Gracechurch-Street, London.

Whitehall, April 4, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the night of Thursday the 19th of March last an atrocious robbery was committed upon Richard Savory, the lock-keeper and collector of the City's tolls, at Teddington lock, by three men (from their language and manner supposed to be barge-men of the lowest class) who entered the toll-house, situate in the hamlet of Ham and Hatch, in the county of Surrey, one of them having previously induced him, under a false pretence, to open the door, violently beat and ill-treated him, and stole, took, and carried away about £17 in Bank notes and silver ;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Committee for Improving the Navigation of the River Thames, to any person or persons who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them or any of them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid. The said reward to be paid on such conviction, by Mr. Stephen Leach, Clerk of the Works, at the City Navigation Barge, near Kew-Bridge.

Whitehall, March 30, 1818

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil-disposed persons did, on the 8th day of February last, assemble in the yard adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Dyball, at Edgefield, in the county of Norfolk, and after having proceeded to break the lower windows of the house, they fired a gun or pistol, loaded with slugs and shot, into the bed-room of the said Mr. Dyball;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the parish of Edgefield, to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, the said reward to be paid by Mr. Richard Funnell, of Stodey.

Whitehall, March 24, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about five o'clock on the morning of Monday the 27th January last, the corn stacks, barn, stables, and other buildings belonging to Mr. John Barns, of Lessingham, in the county of Norfolk, were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness, that between seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Wednesday the 28th January last, the straw stack belonging to Mr. Philip Betts, of Happsborough, in the said county, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set the said corn and straw stacks, &c. on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Gentlemen, owners and occupiers of land in the neighbourhood where the offences were committed, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, March 6, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between the hours of two and three o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 18th ultimo, the house of Mrs. Harpur, of Falkenham, in the county of Suffolk, was burglariously entered by three persons disguised in masks, who went up stairs to the chamber of Mrs. Harpur, and after demanding her money by threats (they standing on each side of her bed, armed), proceeded to rife the house, and took away 55l. in Bank of England notes, and other property;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward of one hundred pounds to be paid by Mr. William Harpur, of Stratton Hall, near Ipswich.

Navy-Office, May 4, 1818.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March 1818, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 11th, 12th, and 13th instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 14th, 15th, 18th, and 19th instant, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 20th and 21st instant, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st March 1818, will commence paying on the 11th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

IN obedience to an Order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 21st day of April 1818, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the City of London, to the opposite side, in the County of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the Fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-Bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two of the clock in the afternoon, on the 21st day of October next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, I will pay to the several persons hereinafter named, the several principal sums, in discharge and annihilation of so much money due to them, by virtue of a former Act of Parliament, made in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled "An Act for the relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London," or such part thereof as by virtue of the said Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen they may be entitled to receive, together with all interest due in respect thereof, to the 21st day of October next; and I desire that the said several persons will attend at the time and place above-mentioned, to receive the said principal sums, with interest for the same, as aforesaid; for, from and after the said 21st day of October next, the interest or annual sums of money payable in respect thereof, will cease and determine. And, in obedience to the said Order, I do hereby further give notice, that if the said several persons, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 21st day of October, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration in writing, at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, pay to the said several persons the said principal sums, together with all interest as shall on the day, severally specified in such said declaration for the payment thereof, have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine; viz.

VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Friday the 1st day of May, in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, 1818; between John Bragge, Henry Dawbney, John Harvey, John Adney, and Richard Adney, plaintiffs; Bonner Collins, defendant.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed, by Mr. Parker, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs on the 30th day of March 1818, filed their bill in this Court against the defendant, as by the Six Clerks' certificate, now read appears; that it appears, by the affidavit of John Jones Owen, of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, Gentleman, that he hath been informed, and believes, that a Bill hath been filed by the above-named plaintiffs against the said Bonner Collins in this Court; and this deponent further saith, that a subpoena hath been issued by the above-named plaintiffs against the said Bonner Collins, commanding him to appear and answer the said Bill, on the 8th day of April; and this deponent also saith, that, upon enquiry at the last place of abode of the said Bonner Collins, for the purpose of serving him with the said subpoena, he was informed, by one William Summers; that the said Bonner Collins was gone beyond sea, to avoid his Creditors; and this deponent hath not been able to find the said Bonner Collins, and that there is just-ground to believe, that the said Bonner Collins is gone out of the realm, to avoid being served with the process of this Court; and this deponent saith, that the said Bonner Collins hath been in England within two years next before the 30th day of March last, the day of filing the Bill in this Cause, as this deponent hath been informed, and believes; it is thereupon ordered, that the defendant do appear to the said Bill on or before the first day of Trinity Term next.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Doughty against King, the Creditors and Legatees of Robert Burcham, late of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, deceased (who died on or about the 8th day of July 1814), are, on or before the 15th day of June next, to come in by their Solicitors and prove their debts, and claim their legacies, before John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court; at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Manger against Isherwood, all persons claiming to be nephews or nieces of Peter Clarke, formerly husband of Elizabeth Clarke; late of Sutton, in the Parish of Campsall, in the County of York, Yeoman, and who were living at the death of the survivor of Mungo Clarke and Agnes his sister (afterwards Agnes Bell), or to be legal personal representatives of any of such nephews or nieces who are, since dead, are, on or before the 18th day of June next, to come in and prove their kindred before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 2d day of June 1812, awarded and issued forth against Thomas Rumsey the elder, late of King-Street, Borough, in the County of Surrey, Broom-Maker and Hoop-Bender, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 11th day of May instant, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at Mr. Mowbray's, No. 39, Charlotte-Street, Blackfriars-Road, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, or prosecuting, any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding with the executrix's under the will of the said Thomas Rumsey deceased, or agreeing with them in the event of their recovery of property, under the said suit in equity or otherwise.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Elliot Walter, of the Parish of Madeley, in the County of Salop, Letter Press Printer, Stationer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 7th day of May instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Russen and Sony Crown Court, Aldersgate-Street, London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing a fit and proper person to sell and dispose of the Bankrupt's printing materials, household goods, and effects, by public auction or private contract; and also to the payment of certain expenses incurred in the preparing of a deed of assignment to Trustees of the said Bankrupt's property prior to the issuing the Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

Notice to the Creditors of Alexander Stephen, Haberdasher, in Glasgow.

Glasgow, April 30, 1818.

WILLIAM FERGUSON, Merchant, in Glasgow, having been elected and confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Alexander Stephen, hereby intimates, that upon his application the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Saturday the 9th and Saturday the 23d days of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of each of those days, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his business.

The Trustee further intimates, that meetings of the Creditors will be held on the 25th day of May and 8th day of June next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon on each day, within the Chambers of Messrs. Lawrie and Morrison, Writers, in Glasgow, for the purpose of choosing Commissioners and instructing the Trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate, all in terms of the Statute.

And it is requested that those Creditors, who have not yet lodged their claims, with oaths of verity thereto, will do so on or before the 18th day of January 1819, being ten months from the date of the sequestration, otherwise they will be deprived of any share of the distribution of the estates of the Bankrupt.

Intimation to the Creditors of James Nichole, Merchant-Tailor and Builder, in Langholm.

Edinburgh, April 30, 1818.

THIS day the Lord Ordinary officiating on the bills sequestrated the estate of the said James Nichole, real and personal; and appointed his Creditors to meet in the House of Mr. Dow, Crown Inn, Langholm, on Wednesday the 13th day of May next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, for the purpose of naming an Interim Factor; and, at the same place and hour, on Wednesday the 27th of said month, for choosing a Trustee.—Of all which intimation is made, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of John M'Culloch, Merchant, in Kirkmaiden, and sale of his outstanding debts.

Stranraer, April 22, 1818.

MR. M'CULLOCH'S Trustee hereby notifies to his Creditors, that, being about to make up a scheme of division, all the grounds of debt and oaths of verity must be lodged with him on or before the 6th of June next; certifying those who fail, that they will be cut out of all dividend under the present trust-deed.

The outstanding debts will be sold, by public roup, in the George Inn, Stranraer, on Friday the 5th of June next; and intending offerers may see a list, by applying to the Trustee, at his house, in Stranraer. CHAS. MORLAND.

J. LIDDERDALE, Writer, Castle-Douglas, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of William and Thomas M'Millans, Merchants there, and William M'Millan and Thomas M'Millan, individual partners of that firm, intimates, that at the meeting of Creditors, held on the 29th day of April ultimo, the Creditors present adjourned the final consideration of the offers of composition made by the Bankrupts, as formerly advertised, till the 28th day of May current; and directed the Trustee to call another meeting of the Creditors, to be held on the said 28th of May, at One o'Clock P. M. in the house of R. Douglas, Innkeeper, Castle-Douglas, for the purpose of finally deciding on the said offer.—Of which intimation is hereby made.

Notice to the Creditors of M'Grouthers and Coats, Merchants, in Greenwich, and of the Individual Partners.

Glasgow, April 29, 1819.

JOHAN PAUL, Merchant, in Glasgow, is confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estates of these parties.

The examinations of the Bankrupts are to take place in the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Glasgow, on the 12th and 26th days of May next, at Eleven A. M. each day. General meetings of the Creditors will be held in the Writing-Chambers of Mr. David Mathie, Glasgow, on the 13th and 27th days of the said month, at Eleven A. M. each day, to receive claims, choose Commissioners, and instruct the Trustee.

The Creditors are required to lodge with the Trustee their affidavits, and to exhibit their vouchers of debt; under certification, that a failure in this respect beyond the 2d day of February 1819, will expose the Creditors who so fail to a forfeiture of their right to a share of the first distribution of the estates.
