Extract from a Dispatch from the Governor in Council, at Bombay, to the Secret Committee, dated 5th January 1818.

SINCE our last letter to your Honourable Committee, dated the 2d instant, was closed, we have received through the Resident at Nagpore, the copy of a dispatch from Brigadier-General Doveton, to the Adjutant-General of the Army of the Deccan, dated the 19th of last month, a transcript of which we have the honour to inclose.

On a perusal of that dispatch, your Honourable Committee will learn, that after the arrival of the Rajah of Berar at the Residency, and a compliance on the part of his Highness with all the conditions which had been demanded of him, the Brigadier-General, in proceeding to take possession of the artillery and to disperse the Rajah's troops, was attacked by a large body of the enemy, on the 16th December, which he completely defeated, and no less than seventy-five pieces of ordnance fell into his hands, with the loss of one hundred and thirty men killed and wounded; the return referred to was omitted to be forwarded; but, we understand, by a letter received from Lieutenant-Colonel Burr, that no officer was among the number of either.

We offer to your Honourable Committee our hearty congratulations on this happy and complete termination of the contest at Berar, the effects of which can hardly be estimated at this interesting crisis.

Letters from Lieutenant-Colonel Burr, and Lieutenant Robertson, of the 1st of this month, acquaint us that the Peishwa had re-appeared with his troops in the vicinity of Poonah, with the supposed intention of attacking the British detachment, under the command of the first-mentioned officer, and the city.

The second battalion of the 1st Regiment of Bombay Native Infantry, which Colonel Burr had
