

prehended and convicted of the said offence, the said reward to be paid by Mr. Richard Funnell, of Stodey.

Whitehall, March 24, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about five o'clock on the morning of Monday the 27th January last, the corn stacks, barn, stables, and other buildings belonging to Mr. John Barnes, of Lessingham, in the county of Norfolk, were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness, that between seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Wednesday the 28th January last, the straw stack belonging to Mr. Philip Betts, of Happisborough, in the said county, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set the said corn and straw stacks, &c. on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Gentlemen, owners and occupiers of land in the neighbourhood where the offences were committed, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, March 6, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between the hours of two and three o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 18th ultimo, the house of Mrs. Harpur, of Falkenham, in the county of Suffolk, was burglariously entered by three persons disguised in masks, who went up stairs to the chamber of Mrs. Harpur, and after demanding her money by threats (they standing on each side of her bed, armed), proceeded to rifle the house, and took away 55*l.* in Bank of England notes, and other property;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward of one hundred pounds to be paid by Mr. William Harpur, of Stratton Hall, near Ipswich.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, made on the 15th day of this present month of May, notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application has been made to Parliament, in the present session, for leave to bring in a Bill for further lighting, with gas, the city of Westminster, and the liberties thereof, and more especially the several parishes of Saint Martin in the Fields, Saint Paul, Covent-Garden, the united parishes of Saint Giles and Saint George, Bloomsbury, Saint Clement Danes, Saint Anne, Saint James, and the several public theatres, opera-houses, and other public establishments, and the avenues leading thereto, and the houses, streets, squares, market-places, and other places in the several parishes aforesaid. —Dated the 16th day of May 1818.

S. Moore, Solicitor, Staple-Inn.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

*Dock-Office, Liverpool,
May 19, 1818.*

Notice is hereby given, that the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks intend to offer for sale, by public auction, at the Dock-Office, in Liverpool, on Friday the 12th day of June next, at one o'clock, assignments of the rates and duties of the said Docks, according to the provisions of the Act of the fifty-first George the Third, to the amount of £20,000, in sums of not less than £100 each, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, payable half-yearly in London or Liverpool; as may be most agreeable to the purchasers.

John Foster, Secretary.

Christ's-Hospital, May 26, 1818.

Whereas John West, late of London, scrivener, and Frances his wife, both deceased, did, in their several lifetimes, settle on the Governors of the said Hospital divers estates, in and about the City of London and elsewhere; and the said Frances West did also give by her will a sum of money to the said Governors, to be laid out in the purchase of lands, &c.; the profits of the whole of the said estates to be applied for the payments of annuities or pensions of £5 each to poor men and poor women, of the age of fifty years and upwards, during their natural lives, and directed that their relations by consanguinity should have the preference; the said Governors do, therefore, hereby give notice, that if any person, qualified as afore-
