Whitehall, June 8, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto John Willes, of Dulwich, in the county of Surrey, Esq. sole executor of the will of Anne, his late wife, deceased, who was the only child and heir of Thomas Wright, late of Dulwich aforesaid, Esq. deceased, sometime Lord Mayor and one of the Aldermen of the city of London, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, on behalf of Thomas Trice, Gent. now a minor, that he the said Thomas Trice may take and use the surname and bear the arms of Wright only, in lieu of His present surname and arms, in compliance with a direction contained in the last will and testament of his relative the aforesaid Anne Willes, formerly Anne Wright, deceased; provided such armorial ensigns be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Royal Highness was also pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Janeway, of Folkestone, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.
