Payment of Prizes, Fourth Lottery 1817.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
July 13, 1818.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of Benefits and Blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the fourth lottery 1817, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Saturday the 25th of this instant July, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets of the said lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for better dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the benefit tickets numbered from No. 1 to No. 7000, at one seat, and the tickets numbered from No. 7001 to No. 14,000, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Monday the 3d day of August next, at one o'clock in the afternoon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to take notice, that they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give notice, that tickets brought to this Office for payment, the checks of which are torn or destroyed, will not be entered for payment without a bond being given to indemnify the said Commissioners for granting certificates for the same.
