Arthur Woolf's Patents for his Invention of certain Improvements in Steam Engines.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session on behalf of Arthur Woolf, formerly of Wood-Street, Spa-Fields, in the county of Middlesex, but now of the parish of Camborne, in the county of Cornwall, engineer, for leave to bring in a Bill and obtain an Act, for prolonging the term of fourteen years granted to him by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date the 2d day of July 1805, and by other letters patent under the seal appointed to be used instead of the Great seal of Scotland, bearing date the 23d day of October 1805, for his invention of certain improvements in steam engines, by which the temperature of the working cylinder or cylinders of a steam engine may be raised to any required degree, without admitting steam from the boiler, into a steam case or jacket; and means are provided for preventing steam of high temperature from escaping past the piston.—Dated this 21st of August 1818.

F. Abbott, Solicitor, Chancery-Lane.

Notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, lanes, passages, and places, within the east division of the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for preventing annoyances therein, and also for opening, widening, and better regulating the same, intend to apply to Parliament in the next Session for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein." And also of another Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act of the sixth year of His present Majesty, for paving the town and borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as relates to the Commissioners of Sewers, and for regulating the manner of taxing churches and other public buildings within the limits of the said Act." And also of another Act passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Commissioners for putting in execution an Act made in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein; to open, widen, and better regulate the several streets, lanes, and passages, within the east division in the said Act described." In which said bill provision is intended to be made for defining the boundaries of the said east division and parts adjacent, and other places comprised, or which ought to be comprised within the limits of the said Acts, and to or over which the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, and the powers and provisions of the said Acts, with respect to the laying and levying of rates and otherwise, extend, or ought to extend; which east division and parts adjacent is or are situate in the several parishes of Saint Olave, Saint John, and Saint Thomas, in the borough of Southwark, and part of the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey.—17th August 1818.
