Whitehall, September 15, 1818:

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about nine o'clock on the night of Sunday the 6th instant, as Mr. George Harrison, Coroner of the borough of Holt, in the county of Denbigh, was returning home, accompanied by his wife, he was fired at with a gun or pistol, by some evil-disposed person unknown, which caused his immediate death;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, by the Right Honourable Lord Kenyon, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by P. Parry, Esq. Solicitor, Wrexham, Denbighshire.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Wednesday the 2d instant, violent and riotous attacks were made upon the mill of Messrs. Gray and Co. called Ancoats Mill, in Pollard-street, Manchester; and that there is reason to believe the same had been preconcerted, and was the result of a wicked determination to destroy the property of the said Messrs. Gray and Co.;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in planning and advising the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Constables of Manchester, to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice, which reward will be paid on conviction of the parties accused.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to extend, enlarge, alter, amend, explain, or repeal several Acts, or certain clauses, provisions, powers, or authorities contained in several Acts, passed in the thirty-third, thirty-fourth, thirty-fifth, thirty-
