

person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by P. Parry, Esq. Solicitor, Wrexham, Denbighshire.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Wednesday the 2d instant, violent and riotous attacks were made upon the mill of Messrs. Gray and Co. called Ancoats Mill, in Pollard-street, Manchester; and that there is reason to believe the same had been preconcerted, and was the result of a wicked determination to destroy the property of the said Messrs. Gray and Co.;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in planning and advising the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Constables of Manchester, to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice, which reward will be paid on conviction of the parties accused.

Whitehall, August 25, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th day of July last, the mills and manufactory called the New Mills, near Witney, in the county of Oxford, were destroyed by fire, and that there is reason to suppose the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said mills on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Charles Leake, Attorney at Law, Witney.

Whitehall, August 8, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday morning last, about five o'clock, Ely Cox, gamekeeper to James Tessier, Esq. at Woodcot-Park, Epsom, Surrey, was most inhumanly murdered in the said park by some person or persons at present unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof. The said reward to be paid by Mr. John Everest, Clerk to the Bench of Magistrates at Epsom.

Whitehall, June 23, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Tuesday the 26th and Saturday the 30th days of May last, the woods belonging to Sir Thomas Edward Winnington, Bart. in the manor of Bewdley, in the county of Worcester, called the Yard Coppice and Hitterell Coppice, were maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said woods), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by Mr. Bury, Solicitor, in Bewdley; and The like sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods and Forests.
