

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of TWENTY GUINEAS, by the said Reverend Jonathan Kendal;

And the further rewards of TEN POUNDS and TEN GUINEAS, to be paid on conviction, by Mr. Manners and Mr. Newcome, the Clerks and Treasurers to the Grantham Associations for the Prosecution of Felons.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a wheat stack standing amongst several others, belonging to Mr. John Wolton, of Eyke, in the county of Suffolk, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed in the night of Monday the 28th ultimo, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said wheat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, the rewards hereafter mentioned, are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Suffolk Fire Office;

And a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the said Mr. John Wolton.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the body of Mr. John Thomas Taylor, son of Mr. Taylor, Surgeon, of Goswell-Street, in the parish of Saint Luke, in the county of Middlesex, has been found in the New River; and that there is reason to suppose the said John Thomas Taylor was, on Thursday the 10th day of December last, robbed, murdered, and thrown into the said river, near the Iron-Bridge, at the foot of Hornsey-Wood, in the Green-Lanes, leading to Southgate, when, amongst other things, there was taken from his person a silver box cover hunting watch, maker's name "Joseph Mears, 1814," to which was attached a gold curb chain, a small gold seal, without any engraving, and another larger, with a white cornelian stone, the engraving, a tower, and a ship sailing;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said John Thomas Taylor), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by J. M. Fisher, Esq. Solicitor, No. 10, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn, London.

Whitehall, December 22, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Wednesday the 16th instant, some evil disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously maim and wound two bull calves, the property of Mr. William Bound, of Hill Farm, situate at Henbury, in the county of Dorset, and also a cow the property of Thomas Pither, residing upon the said farm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. William Castleman, Solicitor, Wimborn, in the county of Dorset.

Admiralty-Office, January 15, 1819.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been most graciously pleased to authorise the Court of Assistants of the Sea Officers Widows' Charity, to grant pensions to Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, without restriction as to the amount of their income, and notwithstanding they now are or may have been remarried, provided they shall appear to
