WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been most graciously pleased to authorise the Court of Assistants of the Sea Officers Widows' Charity, to grant pensions to Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, without restriction as to the amount of their income, and notwithstanding they now are or may have been remarried, provided they shall appear to be proper and deserving objects of the public bounty; this is to give notice thereof, in order that Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, who have hitherto been excluded from the Charity by reason of the amount of their income, or in consequence of having remarried, and may now be desirous of applying for the pension, may prefer their claim by letter to me at this Office.

And notice is further given, that all Widows of Naval Officers already on the Pension List, may obtain the new forms of affidavit by letter to me, or by personal application at the Admiralty-Office, and the Offices of the Resident Commissioners of the Navy at the several Dock-Yards.

J. W. CROKER.

Admiralty-Office, March 12, 1819.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity established for the relief of the widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 20th and 31st of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the Pension List, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th of May.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions, must state the rank their husbands held in the Royal Navy.
