

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, March 22, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to order a Congé d'Elire, to pass the Great Seal, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being void by the death of Doctor John Parsons, late Bishop thereof; and His Royal Highness has also been pleased to recommend to the said Dean and Chapter, the Right Reverend Father in God, Herbert Lord Bishop of Landaff, to be by them elected Bishop of the said See of Peterborough.

Foreign-Office, March 20, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint William Meyer, Esq. to be His Majesty's Consul-General in Albania, and the adjacent territories in the Ottoman Empire.

Crown-Office, March 23, 1819.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Shire of Inverness.

The Right Honourable Charles Grant the younger, of Waternish, Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant and General Governor in Ireland.

Commission in the Pevensey Regiment of Sussex Local Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Sussex.

John Henry Bates, Esq. to be Major, vice the Right Honourable David Montague Erskine, appointed to the command of the Western Regiment of the same Militia.

Whitehall, January 22, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and wilfully kill and destroy two sheep and one lamb, which were grazing in a small close on the South side of Barrowby Turnpike Gate, in the parish of Barrowby, in the county of Lincoln, and four ewes in lamb, which were grazing in a great grass close near the abovementioned place, all the property of the Reverend Jonathan Kendal, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the parts of Kesteven, in the said county; and that the said offence was committed not for plunder, but from a principle of revenge to the said Mr. Kendal, who is a very active Magistrate for the said parts;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His
