TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1819.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of His Majesty's Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two pennyweights of fine silver, and eighteen pennyweights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy; and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of crowns (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above mentioned (every such crown piece having for the obverse impression, the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. D. G. Britanniarum Rex, F. D." and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the image of Saint George, armed, sitting on horseback, attacking the Dragon with a sword, having broken his spear in the encounter, the said device being placed within the ennobled Garter, bearing the motto, "Honi soit qui mal y pense;" and on the edge of the piece, in raised letters, "Decus et tutamen, anno "regni," the year of the reign being in Roman numeral letters), has been delivered from His Majesty's Mint to the Bank of England, and will continue to be issued therefrom for the use of His Majesty's subjects; We have, therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said Kingdom, that is to say, such crown pieces as of the value of five shillings in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of April 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for

His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 19th of March 1819.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, dated the 4th of last month, in the words following, viz:

“Whereas by an Act of the fifty-eighth year of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole,” it is provided, that, for the encouragement of persons who may attempt the said Passage, or approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same; the said Commissioners may, by their Memorial, propose to His Majesty in Council, to direct and establish proportionate rewards to be paid to such person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach:”

And whereas it appears that the progress of discovery has already advanced on the Eastern

Coast of America, and within the Arctic Circle, as far as 90 degrees West Longitude, or thereabouts, from Greenwich; and Northwards has not yet arrived, according to any well authenticated accounts, so far as 81° of North Latitude:

We, your Memorialists, beg leave most humbly to represent these particulars for your Royal Highness's consideration, and to submit, with all humility, whether your Royal Highness may not be graciously pleased to establish the following scale of rewards, to be allotted according to the intentions of the Act:

1.—To the first ship belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, or to His Majesty, that shall reach the Longitude of 110° West from Greenwich, or the Mouth of Hearne's or Coppermine River, by sailing within the Arctic Circle £5,000

To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 130° West from Greenwich, or the Whale Island of Mackenzie, by sailing within the Arctic Circle £10,000

To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 150° West from Greenwich, by sailing Westwards within the Arctic Circle £15,000

The Act having already allotted to the first ship that shall reach the Pacific Ocean by a North West Passage the full reward of £20,000

2.—To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach to 83° of North Latitude £1,000

To 85° £2,000

To 87° £3,000

To 88° £4,000

The Act having already allotted to the first ship that shall reach to or beyond 89° the full reward of £5,000

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having taken the said Memorial into consideration was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to sanction and approve of, and doth hereby sanction and approve of, the scale of rewards proposed in the said Memorial.

Chetwynd.

Thos. Bouchier,

Deputy Clerk of the Crown for Ireland.

Foreign-Office, April 6, 1819.

Extract of a Dispatch from the Right Honourable George Henry Rose, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Berlin, to Viscount Castlereagh, K. G. dated Hanover, March 26, 1819.—Received April 6.

HER Royal Highness the Duchess of Cambridge was safely delivered of a male child, at ten minutes past two o'clock this morning, at Cambridge-House, in this city. His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, the Earl of Mayo, and myself attended Her Royal Highness's confinement, and have signed a formal declaration to the above effect.

Her Royal Highness and her child have past the night quite well. He appears to be healthy and well grown.

Extract of a Dispatch from the Right Honourable George Henry Rose, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Berlin, to Viscount Castlereagh, K. G. dated Hanover, March 27, 1819.—Received April 6th.

IT is my duty to apprise your Lordship, that Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Clarence was delivered of a female child this morning, at ten minutes past seven o'clock; that the child was born alive, and was baptized at nine o'clock this morning, according to the rites of the Church of England, by the names of Charlotte-Augusta-Louisa; and that it expired at one o'clock this afternoon, at the Fürstehof, the residence of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence in this city, where it was born.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the Earl of Mayo, and myself attended Her Royal Highness's confinement, and have signed a formal declaration to the above effect.

Downing-Street, April 6, 1819.

The Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Hardinge Giffard, Esq. to be Chief Justice, and Richard Otley, Esq. to be Puisne Justice of Ceylon.

Foreign-Office, April 6, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Matthew Fairless, Esq. to be Consul at Sunderland for the Kingdom of Hanover.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Thursday the 5th of November last, two stacks of hay, the property of Mr. James Wall, of Ashford, in the county of Kent, standing near the barn and buildings upon his land, called the Bridge Land, situate in the parish of Willesborough, in the said county, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stacks of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. James Wall; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered by the inhabitants of Ashford, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above rewards to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of Wednesday the 7th of October last, a stack of hay, the property of the Rev. Moyle Bretton, L. L. D. of Kennington, in the county of Kent, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stack of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Moyle Bretton, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, January 22, 1819.

WHercas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and wilfully kill and destroy two sheep and one lamb, which were grazing in a small close on the South side of Barrowby Turnpike Gate, in the parish of Barrowby, in the county of Lincoln, and four ewes in lamb, which were grazing in a great grass close near the abovementioned place, all the property of the Reverend Jonathan Kendal, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the parts of Kesteven, in the said county; and that the said offence was committed not for plunder, but from a principle of revenge to the said Mr. Kendal, who is a very active Magistrate for the said parts;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of TWENTY GUINEAS, by the said Reverend Jonathan Kendal;

And the further rewards of TEN POUNDS and TEN GUINEAS, to be paid on conviction, by Mr. Manvers and Mr. Newcome, the Clerks and Treasurers to the Grantham Associations for the Prosecution of Felons.

PAYMENT OF OUT-PENSIONERS.

Royal Hospital, Chelsea,
April 3, 1819.

IN pursuance of the Act of the 55th year of His present Majesty, by which it is enacted that the out-pensioners of this Hospital shall in future be paid quarterly in advance, instead of half-yearly, notice is hereby given, by order of the Right Honourable the Lords and others, Commissioners for Managing the Affairs of the said Hospital, that all the out-pensioners thereof, residing in London, or within the district of the bills of mortality, are required to appear personally and regimentally, with their instructions and certificates of admission, at the Secretary's Office in the said Hospital on the respective days, and in their different classes, according to their several rates of pension as undermentioned, when attendance will be given from Ten o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon, for the payment of a quarter of a year's pension in advance, to the 24th of June next.

On Tuesday the 6th of April,

The pensioners at 5d. per day, and those at 6d. to the end of the numbered regiments.

On Wednesday the 7th of April,

Those at 6d. from the royal garrison battalion and remaining regiments and corps; those at 7d. and 8d. and all the cavalry at 9d. per day.

On Thursday the 8th of April,

Those at 9d. per day, from the 1st foot guards to the 60th foot, inclusive.

On Saturday the 10th of April,

Those at 9d. per day, from the 61st foot, and all the remaining regiments and corps; and also those at 10d. per day.

On Monday the 12th of April,

Those at 1s. per day, from the different regiments of cavalry, with the 1st and 2d regiments of foot guards.

On Tuesday the 13th of April,

Those at 1s. per day, from the 3d regiment of foot guards, to the end of the numbered regiments at that rate.

On Wednesday the 14th of April,

Those at 1s. per day, from the royal garrison battalion, and all the remaining regiments and corps; as also those at 1s. 0½d. per day.

On Thursday the 15th of April,

Those at 1s. 1d. 1s. 1½d. 1s. 2d. 1s. 2½d. and 1s. 3d. per day.

On Friday the 16th of April,

Those at 1s. 3½d. 1s. 4d. 1s. 4½d. 1s. 5d. 1s. 5½d. 1s. 6d. 1s. 6½d. 1s. 7d. 1s. 7½d. 1s. 8d. 1s. 8½d. 1s. 9d. 1s. 9½d. and 1s. 10d. per day.

On Saturday the 17th of April,

Those at 1s. 10½d. per day and upwards; and those pensioners who have been admitted on account of blindness.

It is also ordered and directed, that all the out-pensioners belonging to the said Hospital, do pay particular attention to their instructions, which they are required to produce at the time of payment, by which they are ordered to transmit to the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces in London, their affidavits as therein prescribed, on, or immediately after every quarter-day, without which their names will not be entered on the pay-lists for the subsequent quarter, and they are not afterwards to change their place of abode, as specified in their affidavits, without unavoidable necessity, and duly notifying the same.

And farther to take notice, that, in consequence of various frauds having been committed by pensioners in the receipt of pension and prize-money, it is ordered that all pensioners so offending shall be struck off the pension list, and forfeit for ever all benefit arising from this Establishment; it is therefore to be observed, that, in pursuance of this resolution, the Lords Commissioners, at their meetings on the 17th and 25th of last month, directed the following out-pensioners to be struck off the Hospital books:

- 7th foot—James Jeffs, at 1s. 2d. per day.
- 56th foot—George York, at 1s. 0½d. ditto.
- 7th dragoons—Samuel Mullings, at 9d. ditto.

The two former having been guilty of forging, or causing to be forged, the names of magistrates to their quarterly affidavits; and the latter for altering his rate of pension in his instruction papers, and thereby defrauding the person appointed to pay him his pension.

Richard Neave, Secretary and Registrar.

East India-House, the 30th March 1819.

East India-House, March 30, 1819.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held, by adjournment, at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 21st April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of proceeding in the consideration of a motion made in the General Court, on the 24th instant, to approve a resolution of the Court of Directors of the 17th ultimo, granting to Mr. James Wilkinson, under the circumstances therein stated, the sum of 75,000 sicca rupees, at 2s the current rupee, with interest thereon, at 6 per cent. per annum, from the 11th October 1816 to the day when payment shall be made.

The Court of Directors do further give notice, that they have received the following letter from certain Proprietors of East India Stock, viz.

To the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman, and the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

Gentlemen,

We have the honour to inform you, that it is our intention to move and second at the General Court appointed for the 21st April next, that instead of the sum of sicca rupees 75,000, at 2s. the current rupee, with interest thereon, at 6 per cent. from the 11th October 1816 to the day when payment shall be made, proposed to be granted to James Wilkinson, Esq. the said grant shall be the sum of sicca rupees 288,800, at 2s. 6d. per sicca rupee, with interest at 8 per cent. per annum, from the 30th April 1817, till the same be paid, in conformity with the report and recommendation of the Committee, especially appointed by the Governor-General in Council, to consider of Mr. James Wilkinson's case, who were unanimously of opinion, that "the said sum was the lowest compensation to which Mr. Wilkinson was entitled;" and we request the favour, that this notice may be given to the Proprietors fourteen days previously to the holding of the said Court

We have the honour to be,

Gentlemen,

your obedient humble servants,

Chs. Forbes.
C. Cockerell.

Copies of the papers relating to the case of Mr. Wilkinson, with the report required by the bye-law, cap. 6, sec. 20, are open for the inspection of the Proprietors, at this House.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

PLEASANCE BREWING COMPANY, DUNDEE.

Edinburgh, March 19, 1819.

IN an action of declarator brought before the Lords of Council and Session at the instance of James Anderson, only son of the deceased Ebenezer Anderson, Merchant, in Dundee, Pursuer, a Partner of the Company, carrying on the business of Malting and Brewing at the Pleasance, near Dundee, under the firm of the Pleasance Brewing Company, against the other Partners of the said Company, proceeding on the ground of the said James Anderson's indisposition, and that he was no longer able to continue a Partner of said Company, to which action the defenders were duly cited as parties upon the 21st day of October 1818, the Lord Gillies, Ordinary, before whom the said action came to depend, pronounced an interlocutor, dated the 8th and signed the 10th days of December last, in the following words,—"Finds and declares, that the Pursuer ceased to be a Member of the Pleasance Brewing Company, as on the day of his being the date of citation given to the defenders in the present action; and authorises John Yale, Writer to the signet, his tutor ad litem, to insert notices twice in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, and Edinburgh Evening Courant and Caledonian Mercury, and once in each of the two newspapers published in Dundee, announcing that the Pursuer ceased to be a Partner of the said Company at the above date." And to this interlocutor, his Lordship was pleased to adhere by another interlocutor pronounced by him, and dated the 12th day of March 1819.

In obedience to these interlocutors, I, therefore, hereby announce, that the before-designated James Anderson ceased to be a Partner of the Pleasance Brewing Company, Dundee, on the 31st day of October 1818.—Of which all concerned are hereby required to take notice. JOHN YULE.
