

the 55 Geo. 3. ch. 157, for taking affidavits, &c. in London, Westminster, and the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, Essex, Herts, Sussex, and Bucks, have removed their Office from No. 55, Great Queen-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, to No. 9, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane.

N. B. Several affidavits made before the Judges of the Courts at Westminster, having been recently returned from Ireland to be re-sworn before the said Commissioners, at great expence and risk to the parties, they consider it incumbent upon them to apprise the Profession and the public in general, that all affidavits to be made within their district, in matters appertaining to the Court of Chancery and Law Courts of Ireland, and all dispositions of debt and other affidavits in Irish bankrupt cases, are to be made before said Commissioners, who alone are legally empowered to take same; and that similar affidavits are to be made before the Extraordinary Commissioners appointed by said Courts throughout England and Wales, within their respective districts. And it is to be particularly observed, that all such affidavits are immediately recognised and acted upon by the Courts and Commissioners of Bankrupt in Ireland, without notarial or any other attestation, whereby the parties are relieved from the expence and risk attending affidavits made before the Judges in Westminster or Chief Magistrates, whose signatures it was necessary afterwards to authenticate by affidavit made thereof in Ireland.

9, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, May 24, 1819.
