WHEREAS by a decretal Order of the High Court of Chancery, dated the 16th day of February 1819, made in a Cause now depending in the said Court, wherein Ann Sharp is plaintiff, and John Edwards is defendant, it was ordered that it should be referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether Henry Sharp, the husband of the plaintiff, is living or dead, or when he was last heard of, and what is become of him, and if dead, when he died?—The said Henry Sharp, if living, is desired to appear before the said Master, on or before the 30th day of June 1819, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; and any person who can give any information respecting the said Henry Sharp, is desired to give such information to the said Master, at his Chambers aforesaid, on or before the said 30th day of June 1819.

The said Henry Sharp left his home, in Half-Moon-Court, Aldersgate-Street, on the 13th day of March 1808, was a carpenter by trade, and then about 40 years of age.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 11th day of February 1819, made in a Cause wherein Alexander Guthrie is plaintiff, and Francis Yates is defendant, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who was or were the next of kin of Edward Guthrie, late of Weston-under-Lizard, in the County of Stafford, Gardener, who were living at the death of Ann Guthrie, his widow (which Ann Guthrie died on the 13th day of February 1815), and who have made their claims according to the directions of the said Edward Guthrie's will, within twelve months after the decease of the said Ann Guthrie; all or any persons or person claiming to be such next of kin, and who have made such claim within the time limited by the said will, are, on or before the 6th day of July 1819, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their claims or claim as such next of kin, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Waddington against Smith, it was, amongst other things, referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether the defendant, Bernard Harrison (who was the only son of William Harrison, late of Copy Nook, in the Parish of Bolton nigh Bolland, in the County of York, Yeoman, deceased, and went to sea some years ago), is living or dead, and if dead when he died, and whether he left any issue.—The said Bernard Harrison if living, and if dead his issue (if any) is or are forthwith to come in before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; and claim the benefits bequeathed to the said Bernard Harrison and his children by the will of his said father William Harrison, the testator in the said Decree named, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause Waddington against Smith, the Creditors of William Harrison, late of Copy-Nook, in the Parish of Bolton nigh Bolland, in the County of York, Yeoman, deceased (who died in the month of June 1811), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
