

And also to command, that this His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitchall, June 30, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Edmund Walcott, of Winkton, near Ringwood, in the county of Hants, Esq. second son of John Walcott, of Crough, in the county of Limerick, Esq. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may take and use the surname of Sympson, in addition to that of Walcott, and bear the arms of Sympson, quarterly with those of Walcott, Sympson in the first quarter, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of John Sympson, late of Mount Euclid, in the liberties of the city of Cork, Esq. deceased, bearing date the 2d day of March 1813; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that this His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitchall, July 10, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Friday the 2d day of July instant, a loaded gun was feloniously fired in front of the dwelling-house, and against the bed-room window of Philip Gibbons, of Bledlow Ridge, within the parish of Bledlow, in the county of Buckingham, by some evil-disposed person unknown, whereby the shot broke several of the panes of glass, and entered the said room;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Philip Gibbons, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Admiralty-Office, July 6, 1819.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart. hath, in pursuance of the Act of the 46th Geo. 3d.

cap. 158, given me notice, dated the 2d instant, of the intention of himself and partners, owners of Cowper Colliery, to repair and rebuild the Pier or Breakwater at the entrance of the River Blyth, in the county of Northumberland.

J. W. CROKER.

General-Post-Office, June 23, 1819.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having directed that persons should be invited to deliver in plans and elevations for the proposed erection of the New Post-Office; notice is hereby given, that such plans and elevations will be received by the Postmaster-General, at their Office in Lombard-street; and such architects as are desirous of forming and delivering designs for the above purpose, may have access to the calculations and plans now in this Office.

£300 will be given as a premium for the best plan and elevation which shall be furnished—£200 for the second best; and £100 for the third best. The plans are to be delivered in, on or before the 1st September next.

By command of the Postmaster-General,
Francis Freeling, Secretary.
