Whitehall, July 27, 1819.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Benjamin Elliott, of Portsmouth, in the county of Hants, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, July 26, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about ten o'clock in the evening of Friday last, the 23d of July instant, William Birch, a special constable of Stockport, in the county palatine of Chester, had in his custody at his dwelling-house, in the Church-gate in Stockport aforesaid, Joseph Harrison, schoolmaster, of that town, charged with seditious practices; and that three men, at present unknown, went to the said dwelling-house, and while the said William Birch was engaged in conversation with them respecting the said Joseph Harrison, one of the three men fired a pistol at the said William Birch, and the bullet, with which the said pistol was loaded, lodged in his breast, and little hopes are entertained of his life;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedy apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony aforesaid, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said pistol), who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, His Royal Highness is further pleased to promise to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the persons concerned in the said felony, the rewards following; that is to say, for the person who actually fired the said pistol, the sum of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS; and for either of the other two persons who were present at the firing of the said pistol, the sum of FIFTY POUNDS: to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

SIDMOUTH.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that various attempts have been made to set fire to several buildings and other property in the village of Exming, in the county of Suffolk, and that several anonymous letters have been written and dropt containing threats to the above effect; and also, that on the night of the 18th day of this instant July, the outhouses belonging to Mr. Edward Hancock, of Exming aforesaid, were set on fire, and property to a great amount destroyed thereby; and that there is every reason to believe that the same was the act of some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony last mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire the said outhouses), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

The said reward to be paid by Mr. Albertus Pars, at Exming, on behalf of the inhabitants of Exming, and the several insurance offices interested in the preservation of the property.
