AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 28d of July 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of August next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the second day of November next.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Gentlemen whose names are subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, justly appreciating the manifold advantages and incalculable benefits conferred by Divine Providence in the admirable Constitution under which we live, and fully sensible of the mild and paternal Administration which we enjoy under your Royal Highness and your illustrious House, have seen with the deepest concern and regret the attempts of certain desperate and deluded men to deprive their country of these inestimable blessings.

Under the perverted name of reform, proceedings are adopted and publications dispersed, whose obvious and only tendency is to unsettle the minds of His Majesty's subjects in regard to their religious faith, to undermine their loyalty, and to destroy and overturn the property and liberties of the people.

We confidently rely upon the vigilance and vigour of your Royal Highness's Government, to detect and punish those persons whose designs and proceedings are so hostile to the interest and welfare of their country. At the same time we request permission to approach your Royal Highness with the assurances of the unshaken loyalty of this ancient Corporation to your Person and Government, and of its attachment to our happy Establishment in Church and State, and we intreat you to believe, that as Magistrates and citizens we shall on all occasions be ready to support, to the utmost of our power, the Constitution, Laws, and Government of these realms.

Given under our common seal, in the Guildhall of the said town, this 5th day of October, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1819,

Charles Jenmett, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Liverpool, High Steward, and Thomas Evance, Esq. Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks, humbly approach your Royal Highness with our dutiful assurances
