Whitehall, October 25, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of the 20th instant, two small bullets were fired through the window of the house of Mr. Edmund Coppin, situate in Melbourn-place, in the town of North Shields, in the county of Northumberland; and a pistol was fired in the direction of Mr. John Fenwick's house, in the same place; and the window of Mr. Thomas Fenwick's house adjoining was broken; and that about nine o'clock of the same night, the window of the house of Mr. George Hall, situate in Dortwick-street, in the same town, was also broken; the said Edward Coppin, John Fenwick, and George Hall, having respectively served as jurors on an inquest, held on the body of a person then recently dead;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the outrages above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired in each of the above mentioned instances), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH:

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall dis-
