

cover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, viz.

The sum of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS, voted at a general meeting of the inhabitants of the parish of Tynemouth, in the county of Northumberland aforesaid, to be paid by Mr. Richard Barker, Clerk to the Magistrates acting for the east division of Castle Ward, residing in the said parish; and

A further sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, to be paid by Mr. John Fenwick and Mr. Edmund Coppin, two of the persons above mentioned.

Whitehall, October 23, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that early on the morning of the 14th instant, two men broke open and entered a room behind the Bull's Head public-house, in Bradshawgate, in Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, in which were deposited the arms and accoutrements of part of the 15th (King's) Hussars, and there took and loaded two pistols with ball cartridges, and upon being disturbed by the soldiers, one of the said men fired a pistol at and wounded one of the soldiers in the hand, and both the said men then made their escape, leaving the pistols behind them;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the principal person concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to the other of them (not being the person who actually fired the said pistol), who shall discover his accomplice therein, so that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above reward to be paid on application to the boroughreeve and constables, or to Messrs. Broadman and Merry, solicitors, in Bolton aforesaid.

WHereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such otto of roses should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such otto of roses should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such otto of roses in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 19th day of October 1819.
