On Tuesday the 16th of November,

Those non-commissioned officers, trumpeters, and drummers as above referred to, at 1s. per day, from the 1st foot, with all the remaining regiments and corps, including the militia.

His Royal Highness is at the same time graciously pleased to declare, that all the said non-commissioned officers, trumpeters, drummers, and private men, found fit for service, shall be considered as entitled to pay from the respective days of their appearance in pursuance of this order, and that none shall be required to serve in any other corps than a Veteran or Garrison Battalion; and that every man found fit for that duty shall, on his joining the battalion to which he shall be appointed, receive a bounty of one pound, five shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper necessaries; and that those who, on examination are found unfit for duty, shall be dismissed with proportionate subsistence to carry them back to their homes, estimating the same from the time of their leaving their places of residence.

And it is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that if any out-pensioners, who are exempted from the present call under the terms of this Proclamation, shall nevertheless be desirous of volunteering their services, and shall present themselves for examination on the days of assembling, they shall, if found fit to serve, be received into a Royal Veteran or Garrison Battalion, with the same bounty, pay, and allowances as the men who are included in the call.

And it is further notified, that all the out-pensioners hereby called upon to attend, who shall not appear on any of the days above mentioned, will be struck off the Books of the Out-Pension of the said Hospital, according to the regulations under which such pension is granted, without any prospect of being restored thereto.

By order of the Right Honourable the Lords and others the Commissioners for the affairs of the said Royal Hospital,

Richard Neave, Secretary and Registrar.

Navy-Office, October 28, 1819.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st July to the 30th September 1819, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 8th, 9th, and 10th of November, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 11th, 12th, 15th, 16th, and 17th of November, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 18th and 19th of November, to Masters, Surgeons, and Purasers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy,
