

several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 8th, 9th, and 10th of November, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 11th, 12th, 15th, 16th, and 17th of November, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 18th and 19th of November, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th September 1819, will commence paying on the 8th November; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

Admiralty-Office, November 1, 1819.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the ship Patent, of Hull, whereof Richard Ward was Master, laden with a cargo of hemp, flax, linseed, and wainscot logs, having sailed from Biga in Russia, on the 3d of last month, in turning into the Humber, at forty-five minutes past two A.M. on the 17th of the same month, struck on the coast of North Somerscoates, where she now lies.

John Barrow.

NOTICE is hereby given, that with the view and purpose of carrying into effect the building of an additional church at the north end of Brixton Common, in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, upon lands the property of the See of Canterbury and the Rectory of the said parish, and the other lands hereinafter mentioned, and for making a church-yard or cemetery, and convenient roads, footpaths, and approaches thereto, application will be made to Parliament in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for inclosing lands in the manor of Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and for repealing so much and such part or parts of the said Act as relates to the restriction as to buildings on that part of the said common within one hundred and fifty feet of the Croydon road; and also as to two hundred feet distance from the old enclosures, on the east side thereof, and within one hundred feet in front of any messuage or dwelling-house already erected, including a small portion of the land set out and allotted to Robert Stone, Esq. no. 1638 in the map annexed to the award under the said Act; also as to the roads set out in the said award as private roads contiguous thereto, called Efira-Road and Middle-Road; and as to the diversion or branches of the north end of the last mentioned road, by allowing the allotment for the glebe to the Rector to be annexed to the allotment to the See of Canterbury, and the setting out another road in lieu of the aforesaid roads; and for powers to procure such a portion of the land so set out and allotted to the said Robert Stone; and to enable the Rector to give his said allotment towards the purposes aforesaid.
