

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1819.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, November 10, 1819.

ORDERS for the Court's going into mourning, on Sunday next the 14th instant, for Her late Serene Highness the Duchess Dowager of Brunswick, sister to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen, white gloves, necklaces and ear-rings, black or white shoes, fans and tippets.

Undress—White or grey lustrings, tabbies or damasks.

The Gentlemen to wear black, full trimmed, fringed or plain linen, black swords and buckles.

Undress—Grey frocks.

The Court to change the mourning on Sunday the 21st instant, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets, or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuffs, with black ribbons.

The Gentlemen to wear black coats, and black or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuff waistcoats, full trimmed, coloured swords and buckles.

And on Thursday the 25th instant, the Court to go out of mourning.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, November 12, 1819.

Notice is hereby given, that the Court Mourning to commence on Sunday next the 14th instant, will also be for Charles Emanuel the Fourth, late King of Sardinia, brother to His present Majesty Victor Emanuel.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, feel ourselves imperiously called upon in the present crisis, humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our sentiments of sorrow and indignation at the attempts which continue to be made in different parts of this kingdom, by means of wicked, seditious, and blasphemous publications, and of meetings held under the specious pretence of obtaining parliamentary reform, to bring our unrivalled Constitution into hatred and contempt, to excite disobedience to the laws, and to undermine the principles of the Christian Religion.

But while it is to be deplored that persons should be found capable of such base and dangerous designs, we are convinced that they form but a small part of His Majesty's subjects.

We have much satisfaction in assuring your Royal Highness, that notwithstanding the pressure of the times, which has borne hard upon the lower orders, the great body of the inhabitants of this ancient metropolis of Scotland, remain unshaken in their principles of loyalty, as well as of Religion, that they are firmly attached to the Person and Government of your Royal Highness, and to that Constitution, under which they and their forefathers have enjoyed as perfect a degree of liberty and security, as any human institution is capable of affording.

We most respectfully beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that individually and collectively, we shall use every endeavour to encourage sentiments of loyalty towards our venerable and beloved Sovereign, and to your Royal Highness, as his representative, and to suppress every attempt to shake